It's been a longer wait than any of us would have liked, but we're excited to release the continuation of the RHB's "comic inside a game", the Virtual Novel HARD TRAINING!

Unlike our previous Hard Training update, which only had a single chapter, this release contains Chapters 2, 3, and 4! :D

As putting out multiple chapters at once indicates, this game contains a TON of art, about as much art as you'd see in one of our traditional comics spread out over many weeks! All in a single update! >:D

There's a drawback though: we blew our wad getting the latest chapters of Hard Training ready for our community. There's no art in the can to release next week. <blush>

For this reason, and because our team could use a short break to spend time with family and recharge their batteries, the RHB will be on holiday for a couple weeks. We hope that our community will see the value of getting the game chapters all at once instead of dribbled out over a few weeks. And for an idea of just how much art has been made for the game and its characters so far, check out the "Character Viewer" feature in the game to play "Barbie" with Ranma and Nodoka. >:D

We'll be returning on January 16th with a new batch of Fan Requests, and another Comic Lord project to follow soon after! Thanks for your support, and let's get to the shiny new game content!

Hard Training stars Nodoka & Ranma-chan interacting with the player, taking on the role of Ryoga Hibiki, the Lost Boy who's about to get lost in the pleasure of a mother/daughter competition years in the making!

The game interface is pretty simple. Either click, hit Spacebar, or use the keyboard arrow keys to advance the story. There will be a few choices that crop up. In chapter 1, answer well, you get rewarded. Answer poorly, you might miss out. We've since reexamined and reworked choices in subsequent chapters to allow the player to favor their favorite gal, be it Ranma or Nodoka, and for those choices to influence the erotic art they see! Best of all, if you make a choice and decide that you don't like it, just hit the "<" arrow to reverse the game and pick your preferred outcome! :)

We owe an incredible debt of gratitude to Comic Lord Pchan9000. Not only for starting this project, but it was he who made us aware of the Virtual Novel format and what it could mean for our website. While we have spent dozens upon dozens of hours making the art for this game, he's spent his fair share of sweat coding it. None of this would have been possible if Pchan9000 didn't get the ball rolling, so please do thank him for his creative vision and efforts on behalf of the community.

One last thing, about the C.A.R.L. (Community Art Asset Library), this is still a long term goal. We plan to update the Hard Training gallery page next week when we catch our breath after this big release. But for now, you can see much of the art in the game's Character Viewer. The goal remains the same: growing our art assets robust enough for any interested community members to tell whatever stories they wish using the Virtual Novel format!

Naughty Bits 37

Site News 12.16.2019 - 12.17.2019

Naughty Bits Pages 148 & 149 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Naughty Nutcracker", the gang mount a "nontraditional" version of the holiday classic- and mount each other- when they cross "swords" to win the hottest girl in the land!

Special thanks to "SwordKing" for commissioning this festive Naughty Bits page. And if you haven't had a chance yet, be sure to check out the latest chapter of his ongoing comic project, "Queen of the Ring".

Fetishes Include: Costume/Cosplay (The Nutcracker), Lesbian, Strap-On Dildo, and Catfight!

Variants Include: Text and Clean (Text-less) Edition!

Site News 12.12.2019 - 12.13.2019

NOTICE: Hinoron made us aware that he created a different text version for his Booty Hunter game prize and this has now been added to the gallery as an alternate version. :)

Naughty Bits Pages 146 & 147 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Going Solo", we learn that DoCo is no more?!

After three successful albums, Ranma-chan has ditched the other gals of her pop group and gone solo!

Now we must ask the important question here... who was the "Yoko Ono" that caused the breakup?

Was it Akane's jealousy? Infighting between Ranma's waifus? We're looking at you, Shampoo! Nabiki's money grubbing? Or could it be that Ranma's ego finally became too much to bear- even for the serene Kasumi?! We may never know, but it seems that Ranma's already put together a new band to back her up- a BOY BAND. Not sure if this an identity crisis or Ranma's actually indulging her prerogative to have a little fun. ;)

The art is an homage to the Shania Twain music video: Man! I Feel Like a Woman, which is itself a parody of the Robert Palmer video: Addicted to Love.

Fetishes Include: Suit & Tie, Undressing, Public Nudity (Stage), and Music (Singing)!

Variants Include: Text and Clean (Text-less) Edition!

Site News 12.09.2019 - 12.10.2019

We've got a special treat, our first Naughty Bits update in 3 years! Zounds, let's make it a memorable one! ;)

Naughty Bits Pages 143 & 144 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Cumuppance", revenge is sweet and savory!

Special thanks to "Hinoron" for suggesting this comic! This was the prize for the previous season's Booty Hunter, though this version features a never-before-seen text edition.

Fetishes Include: Facial, Bath, Cum, and Revenge!

Variants Include: Text and Clean (Text-less) Edition!

Site News 12.05.2019 - 12.06.2019

Fan Requests Pages 2069, 2070 & 2071 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's request, we've been tasked with going back into the archives and remaking an old furry pinup:

Fan Request 1266

The most notable change is that the girls are no longer wearing cat costumes, they ARE catgirls! Additionally, there's a new pose with friskier energy. >:D

This remake is itself a sequel to an even older pinup, which can be read in the below link to learn more about how this Furem (i.e. a furry harem) went into heat:

Fan Request 1099

Special thanks to "InsaneHiker" for contributing the idea for this pinup set.

Fetishes include: Lesbian, Threesome, Catgirl, Fingering, Licking, Breast Fondling, and Ahegao Face!

Variants include: Sketch, Text, and Clean (Text-less) art!

Site News 12.02.2019 - 12.03.2019

Fan Requests Pages 2066, 2067 & 2068 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's request, we learn that the Tendo Legacy is still very much present in the future... but it's not taken the form that Soun envisioned!

There's a fembot made in Akane's image equipped with numerous "enhancements", including enough breasts to satisfy a six-armed man! Yes, those probably also exist and, at that point, I think pretty much qualifies them to be Tentacle Monsters. :P

For those wondering what Akane is holding, it's meant to be her "input console" for loading her programs, but nostalgic gamers probably recognize it as the notorious Sega 32X. While mocked in its day for the design, which looked like a giant mushroom erecting from a Sega Genesis, the future has been kind to this pervy console add-on and added it to their sex bots. Way to go, Sega, you're back in the console business. >:D

Special thanks to "RawSteelUT" for contributing the idea for this pinup set.

Fetishes include: Video Games, Body Mutation (6 Breasts), Kissing, and Android!

Variants include: Sketch, Text, and Clean (Text-less) art!

Site News 11.28.2019 - 11.29.2019

Defender Specials Pages 659 - 665 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Buxom Feast", we ask: ever open the fridge only to discover that it's completely empty?

For a poor family like the Tendos, ordering out isn't an option. So how will the family survive?

Fear not, turns out someone has large "reserves"! Thanks to recently giving birth, the now MILFY and stacked Kasumi can satiate many appetites. Gobble, gobble it up! >:D

Fetishes include: Thanksgiving, MILF, Large Breasts, and Milk!

Variants include: Sketch, Clean (Text-less), Dry, Milk, and Overflowing Editions!

Site News 11.25.2019 - 11.26.2019

In today's request, a strange twist of fate results in Akane and Ranma-chan joining Shirou Emiya's harem! But it seems that before this becomes official, they must first consummate their new relationship with his adoptive mother, Irisviel von Einzbern (Fate Universe)! Talk about a stiff screening process! ;)

Special thanks to "Zaiaku" for contributing the idea for this pinup set.

Fetishes include: Lesbian, Threesome, Dildo, Crossover (Fate), and Double Penetration!

Variants include: Sketch, Text, and Clean (Text-less) art!

Site News 11.21.2019 - 11.22.2019

NOTICE: Fan Requests return Monday and will run for a few weeks before we switch back to Comic Lord projects to release the next chapter of Pchan9000's Virtual Novel Game: Hard Training!

Defender Specials Pages 656, 657 & 658 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Curious Cure", Shampoo travels to Jusenkyo for a chance to shed her curse form! It seems that the Amazon has had an epiphany: unlike Ranma, whose search for the Spring of Drowned Man continues, Shampoo realizes that the location of the Spring of Drowned Girl is very known! But as Ranma and those who have fallen into a Jusenkyo pool can attest, obtaining these cures is seldom simple! ;)

What do you think, Defenders, is Shampoo's new form an improvement? >:D

Fetishes include: Catgirl!

Site News 11.18.2019 - 11.19.2019

Defender Specials Pages 654 & 655 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Sloppy Strategy", a change of tactics leads Shampoo to finally score big with Ranma... but maybe not the Ranma that she'd prefer! Whether this tryst will lead to "beefier" encounters between them in the future, time will tell. ;)

Fetishes include: Lesbian, Cheating, and Oral!

Site News 11.14.2019 - 11.15.2019

Defender Specials Pages 652 & 653 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Psycho Delivery", Shampoo is pressed into service as delivery girl once more and encounters her most demanding customer yet: Kodachi Kuno?! O.O

One wonders why the Amazon warrior doesn't dispatch the Black Rose for her sudden craving for "oysters" with noodles, but perhaps the Kunos are simply too rich for the Cat Cafe to risk losing their business. Maybe that... and Shampoo secretly doesn't want to miss out on receiving Kodachi's "big tip". :P

Fetishes include: Lesbian, Breast Fondling, Sideways Sex, and Dildo!

In today's update, titled "Tips and Nips", Nabiki offers us some solid advice- and a stunning rack!

Fetishes include: Large Tits, Boob Squish, and Cum!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books and a very Happy Halloween to our community!

Defender Specials Pages 638 - 642 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Airen's Siren", it's a spooky time for Shampoo as Ranma and Akane's wedding date draws near!

Seemingly unable to lure Ranma away from the clutches of his arranged marriage with mere natural beauty, The Purple Wonder does the unthinkable: make a deal with a demon to become a succubus!

Will this last seduction work? Well, you have to admit this new form is a big upgrade over her Jusenkyo curse, which was the anti-catnip to her Airen. Still, there are no guarantees... except the guarantee that Shampoo will give us one hell of a show while making the attempt! >:D

Below you'll also find variants, including sketch, wet, cum, and clean (textless) Editions!

Fetishes include: Halloween, Cowgirl, Cum, and Monster (Succubus)!

In today's request, Akane's sharing a lip-lock with another redhead- and it's not Ranma... but it IS a Ran!

Ran is an alien babe from another Romic World, "Urusei Yatura"! She's on the hunt for a new cooking recipe and- astonishingly- Akane's latest concoction is considered tasty by her standards! Maybe not as tasty as her lips though! ;)

Akane better be careful kissing Ran, however, as this redhead has the ability to drain or bestow youth with her lips!

The possibilities are tantalizing. Ran could make Cologne smoking hot again... or finish that old perv Happosai off for good! Nabiki, time to line up your next business deal. ;)

Site News 04.11.2019 - 04.12.2019

As our community is aware, we've been releasing two Fan Request pinup sets each week for much of the year. This has given us vital time to reorganize and begin to replenish our depleted art reserves. It is understandable if the community were to think that 2 pinups per week is "the way it is now" and comics, when rarely appearing, are doomed to dribble out slowly. We've heard these concerns and wish to offer the community assurance that it remains our intent to ramp up the release schedule another notch. For this reason, effective immediately we are going to place Fan Requests on temporary hiatus (after a good run these past months) and instead release a 2nd comic page this week!

We'll sustain the 2 comic pages per week release pace for The Secret of Ukyo's Sauce so long as it does not cause compromises in art quality or delays. Our goal is to maintain this production pace for a full month. After 8 additional pages of The Secret of Ukyo's Sauce have been released, we'll pivot back to Fan Requests for a time and assess how stable production was during this period. If production goes well, we'll attempt the same accelerated release pace for the other Comic Lord projects. Expect periods of Fan Request updates sandwiched between comic projects to give the team a chance to downshift, recover, and prep for the next comic.

The new release schedule will be a new comic page every Monday and Thursday. We may do art previews for comic pages on Tuesdays and Fridays, but this has not yet been determined (issues of spoilers and what would qualify as a compelling preview are still being discussed). For now, those days are dark. We realize that it would be ideal if we could release Fan Requests on those Dark Days, but as comic pages are the most expensive and time-consuming art that we make, it's not currently within reach. Hopefully we'll someday claw our way back there with continued hard work and the community's support. Restoring the 2nd weekly comic update slot is a big leap towards that goal. :)

Fan Requests will return after The Secret of Ukyo's Sauce finishes its current cycle sometime in early May. :)

Announcement: I've been receiving some inquiries about the RHB's Patreon page and wanted to take some space here to address it.

First, our Patreon is officially sanctioned. I'm currently running it, but soon it will be managed by RHB team member Rafaelmc17.

Second, the Patreon page is NOT a substitute or replacement for Ranmabooks.com. Instead, Patreon.com/Ranmabooks is focused on remastering our classic art and comics in Ultra High-Definition (or as close as we can get based on the original art masters).

In the past, feedback has been mixed about the team using RHB resources for remastering efforts. By shifting this to Patreon, we allow the RHB to continue its focus completely on making new art, while allowing our membership to support Patreon if remastering our classic pinup and comic art appeals.

What comics are currently available at our Patreon? The first compilation comic, "Lady in Red", contained remastered versions of "For Love of a Girl-Side" and "My Girlfriend's Girlfriends", along with a select group of pinups. The next planned compilation comic will focus on Kasumi (Kasumi's Secret, Keeping it Clean, and Voodoo Child are planned for inclusion) and will be released near the end of February.

For those concerned, I want to make this assuring promise: eventually, remastered comics will all be posted to the RHB for everyone to enjoy. However, to reward those supporting the remastering project, an exclusivity window will exist, so if Ranmabooks members would like to do so or see these remastered comics sooner, please consider supporting our Patreon.

Should our Patreon grow enough, it may eventually produce original art of its own monthly, but this is likely some time away. Our efforts remain first and foremost on the RHB and increasing the quality and amount of art we make for our members and that will not change, whatever future is in store for our Patreon.

Occasionally, original Ranmabooks pinup art may be created and first released to Patreon as an incentive for support (Like the pinup we are releasing here today). Such promotions though carry the same promise: all art created and posted on Patreon will eventually be available for release at Ranmabooks. Patreon is meant to compliment and support our art, not be a replacement for it. Thanks for reading, now let's talk about today's art! :)

Defender Specials Pages 585 & 586 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, titled "Kasumi: Medical Mystery!", the eldest Tendo sister has found a way to help her dear Doctor Tofu overcome his pesky shyness and focus on the important task of satisfying her: give him a medical mystery to solve! The only thing more surprising than this strategy's effectiveness may be WHERE Kasumi's mythical G-spot is located!

Fans of past RHB comics "Kasumi's Secret" and "Keeping it Clean" will remember Big Sister's eternal love for anal. I was going to make an anal joke here... butt fuck it. Tofu did! Kasumi approves! ;)

Welcome back! Our next stop- The Hentai Zone!

THZ 4 "Seed of Displeasure" Text & Clean is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, we learn the origin of Hinako Ninomiya's beef with Tatewaki Kuno!

What do you think about today's update? Join us over at the forums and share your thoughts with the community.

PROJECT STATUS UPDATE: THZ4 has been on hiatus since April of 2018. This hiatus has been much longer than anticipated and an explanation needs to be provided. As our community will shudder to remember, the RHB was forced to stagger production in July of 2018 as we faced challenges both professionally and personally. While we have reorganized since then and restored stability and predictability to our release schedule, the delays experienced during this period forced us to place THZ4 on hold while we honored our commitments to the Comic Lords (projects we are very proud of and look forward to continuing this year). Two Comic Lord Projects, "Ukyo's Secret Sauce" and "Hard Training" have yet to resume release and are set to return sometime in February and March, respectively. Once those projects have been addressed, we'll turn our attention towards resuming the production of THZ4.

Lamentably, we must caution our community that they should not expect THZ4 to return this Spring. As one of our most ambitious projects in terms of cast size and book length, it's possible that another full cycle of CL projects will be released before THZ4 makes its return. Behind the scenes, THZ4 will remain in active production being juggled alongside these other projects (including the community's Fan Requests). Our intent is to resume release of THZ4 only when its complete, not bring it back for a set of pages and then have to put it back on hold to honor our CL commitments. That way, when THZ4 does return, it will be a signal to the community that a conclusion to the story is imminent and assured.

Thanks for continuing to support the RHB. We hope you'll enjoy all the comic offerings we have planned for 2019 and beyond!

UPDATE: Due to constructive and reasonable feedback received from Haschgurra, the RHB team has decided to revisit the recent Principal Kuno Beach Bash pinup set and create a tanline edition. This feature was originally requested, but sadly deleted due to time constraints. Given the importance of the fetish for Hasch and the support given over the years, an emergency art session was conducted to make the gals that perfect shade of golden brown!

Speaking of SHADE, since he spent precious time coloring these lovely bronzed bombshells, we had to bump some content to later in the week. As a result, today's planned Fan Request preview has been postponed. Thursday, expect that art and the final color version of it to be posted together in a single update. Thanks for everyone's patience while we try to make this right for a fellow RHB community member. :)

Our next Comic Lord project is ready to roll!

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday (and because there was confusion with the previous MAWM combo release), this will be released in two parts. Today, we'll release the 4K Edition of the previously released content. Monday, we'll release a new page for the project!

As much as we would like to say there will be 2 new comic pages every week, each Monday and Friday, we're not yet ready to resume that level of production. For now, future Comic Lord updates will follow the same pattern as Man Among Women.

My Teacher is My Princess Cover Page, Page 01, 02 & Bonus is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, Hinako makes history come alive- or at least look good! ^_-

Reviewing today's pinup set, I do worry whether we missed an opportunity to make a slimmer, smaller Nodoka who might fit the body type of her as a young woman. Concerned about the possible incongruity, an alternate text version with present day Nodoka has been created as a bonus and secondary option for readers.

We're pleased to announce that our Comic Lord projects have returned! And while we are excited to be releasing comic content once again, we're going to be very cautious at this stage. For now, Comic Lord pages will be released as two updates, counting for both Friday and Monday content. Tuesdays will feature a sketch Fan Request preview, while Thursdays will feature the finished Fan Request. Our intention is to remove the "preview" updates asap, replacing it with another Fan Request pinup, but the team needs to make sure that we're stable. We'll be ramping up content slow and steady, making sure production is stable so that we do not need another production hiatus like we experienced this summer.

The patience and support we've received from the community has been extraordinary. While we haven't been able to produce quantity, we continue to strive for quality and hope the community feels the value is still there. Thank you for making our recovery possible! Now let's get back to the great comic content we're here for! ;)

Man Among Women Page 02 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

Due to availability concerns on Thursday- and the availability of a finished pinup set- we're releasing Tuesday and Thursday's content together in a single update. :)

For those wondering about production, we've turned a corner. We've produced significant line art, but color is something which takes time, and we're still addressing that challenge.

The plan is to bring Comic Lord projects back the first week of October and then- if production remains stable- bump up releases to 3 finished pages per week later that month. We're being careful not to try to do too much too soon, only to backslide once more with another production reduction because we overreached. Steadily ramping up production gives us the best chance to make the increased content releases stick.

We continue to be grateful for our community's patience while we rebuild and maintain our art production and promise that our team will continue to prioritize quality. The next news update regarding art production will be made at the end of this month. :)

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

The team realizes that all of these staggered updates can't be great for morale, which is why we worked extra hard this week to finish Thursday's Fan Request early! And, since it's ready, why not simply release it early as well? ^_^

We're so grateful for the community's support during these lean times. We never take it for granted and please be assured there'll be an update next month informing our community where we are at with production. The goal remains to get back to full strength ASAP and we're making incremental progress!

Like Ranma-chan, Ryoga-chan features different colored hair. We realize that this design change may make it harder for some to recognize the character and enjoy the pinup set, so just for those who like it closer to the original design, we included a variant set with alternative coloring and dialog. We can't put out a lot of content right now, but we'll continue to give maximum effort with all we can put out! Please enjoy. ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

UPDATE: After speaking with our art team, and receiving encouraging feedback concerning the "preview art" update this past Tuesday, we've chosen a course of action to help us get back on track long term.

There were two possible options, neither great, but both would fix our production issues for a much longer period.

Option 1: Cancel content for the next two weeks. Bring artists from our sister sites over to the RHB. This wouldn't fix the production issues immediately, but would get us back on track as quickly as possible and allow artists associated with our production delays the opportunity to focus on life matters in the hopes of coming back into the fold at a later date. The large negative would be that sister sites JusticeHentai.com and EnchantedHentai.com would experience severe art delays as well since there would be no artists available to work on their respective content.

Option 2: Stagger, but maintain production for all sites. This still involves bringing over artists from our sister sites, but we'd be spreading out content through the use of preview art (like Tuesday's update). This path will take a bit longer to stabilize production, we believe somewhere between 3 and 4 weeks, but it affords us opportunity to keep some content flowing for the RHB while allowing production time for JH and EH, ensuring these sites will not go dark while their dedicated artists help us out here.

Both options suck, because it means that we're going to be making less content overall for the time being. Given the bad options before us, we're going with option 2 because that seems the fairest path for the respective communities of all three websites.

For the time being, again estimated to be about 3-4 weeks, we'll be posting "preview art" on Tuesday and Friday, with "completed art" posting Monday and Thursday.

Regarding the next Comic Lord project, Man Among Women, one of the artists impacted directly affects that project. Such efforts are temporarily on hold, but we believe that the project will return in August, followed by BlackBeak's CL project and Pchan9000's Virtual Novel project (which hopefully will be out early Fall, along with a larger update regarding our Virtual Novel efforts).

Should production stabilize sooner than anticipated, we may revert to a normal release schedule quicker too, but we'll be guarded not to switch too soon- only to fall back into a similar situation which lead us to this frustrating place. The goal is long-term stability and all efforts will be made to that end, including the eventual recreation of an art buffer to help us withstand such production emergencies in the future.

RHB community, we've been through so much together. We have asked a lot of your goodwill this year during these production challenges, and I want to thank those who have stuck with us and continue to believe in the Ranma art we are making. Our passion and determination to continue remains strong, so please know we will do everything possible to return the website to normality- well, about as normal as hentai involving a half-girl/half-boy could be! ^_-

Expect more updates on production matters when we've turned the corner. Until then, let's focus on the latest pinup set requested by our community!

Fan Requests Pages 1791 & 1792 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

UPDATE: The colorization of today's pinup was unfortunately not completed in time for release due to circumstances we could not foresee or control. I am refraining from going into specific details- respecting the privacy of the artist- but know they will do their best to honor their obligations to the website and its community as they face difficult life challenges. The art will be delayed- we estimate- about 2 days and it should be ready for release within the next 48 hours.

In times past, we had a buffer of completed work stored which would serve in case of such emergency. However, in recent times we've not had the resources to build and maintain such a buffer. We realize quantity isn't currently possible, therefore we remain committed to quality. Hopefully the recent Fan Request offerings affirm that.

SHADE and I were unsure how to proceed with today's update. This year, we have uncharacteristically missed a number of updates- an unnerving sporadic trend we've been doing our utmost to buck. Rather than offer nothing but this explanation, we've decided that sharing a bit of preview art was the least crummy solution available to us where no good solutions were possible. :(

We know preview art can spoil the finished piece, and we are sensitive to that, so we've tried to share a juicy bit without giving everything away, similar to what we did for Naughty Bits updates in past years. Please share your opinion about whether this method is preferable to posting the "entire line art".

The team thanks the community for its continued patience and support of our projects. I can't promise this won't happen again, but I can promise we'll continue to do everything reasonably possible to ensure the art is worth any wait we must endure.

The Hentai Zone 4 Page 99 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, Akane brings in the BIG GUNS! Bigguns? Actually, they are rather "Lil'guns" at the moment. :P

Production Note: Today's page comes in two flavors. Both versions (spoilers be ahead) contain a sequence in the last panel where Hinako imagines herself in a sexual situation. One of the concepts that intrigued me was the possibility that Hinako imagines herself in neither of her physical forms, but rather some idealized middle-ground between the two- but she would appear that way only in her imagination. If you have an opinion on this design, please share your thoughts on the forum.

Such experimental designs can prove to be divisive, so we included an alternate version in the form most would expect. If you don't like the imagined "balanced" form, often titled the "barely legal" version during production, then we hope you enjoy the alternate version. That's what it was made for. ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Announcement: We've begun our seasonal holiday art! For the next three updates, we'll be releasing pinups of some Ranma gals who haven't been featured in The Hentai Zone 4. Additionally, Friday's THZ4 page will be released on Monday- Christmas. Like this past Thanksgiving, the RHB team will be taking brief time off for the holidays. From December 26th to January 1st, the RHB will be going dark without any content updates. We return Tuesday (January 2nd), and will have uninterrupted updates for the rest of January.

As our community is aware, we have a proud tradition of releasing art without interruption. However, this year's challenges of rampant illness among the art team- and the fact we hadn't taken any holidays off previously in the past eight years- prompted us to take this unprecedented respite. Given past history, I would suggest that such breaks will remain rare and be taken sparingly. We appreciate the community's understanding and hope they enjoy the holiday treats we've prepared! ^_^

Welcome back! Our next stop- The Hentai Zone!

UPDATE: Happy to report that our next THZ update was completed in the nick of time!

The last few weeks our team has battled production delays due to health problems (flu season has been brutal). We've tried our best to weather that storm by hiring extra help, which was reflected in the color style shift of the recent Fan Requests. The problem is, we're going over budget. And we've had to work consecutive days of 16 plus hours trying to make up ground. During the worst stretch, there was a 20 hour and 21 hour work day, back to back. If we keep on this path, we'll not only find ourselves in further financial hardship, not only could it compromise the quality of our art, but we're going to wreck our health- just as Thanksgiving is upon us. :(

The RHB has a proud tradition of never missing an update. We have always released art content of some kind, and never even taken a holiday off to boot! But the fates are against us, and we recognize that, so for the first time- in over 8 plus years of steady releases- we'll need to suspend art for Thanksgiving week. There'll be a new THZ page today, of course, but we'll be going dark until Monday, November 27th.

Our international team members shall continue to work throughout this period. And we expect our team to be fully healthy and recharged going forward! We apologize for the necessity of this interruption of service and will look for future opportunities to provide some extra content to make up for this week's shortfall. Thanks for your understanding and support, we'll honor it as best as we can by providing outstanding quality when we return! :)

REMINDER: Due to artist health issues, damn flu season, today's THZ page has been delayed until Friday. A special pinup set will take its place. For detailed info, please check out Friday's blub in the Site News Archive.

I'm hopeful that Fan Request production will not be impacted. There's a good chance we'll have these ready on time, but a 1-day delay is possible, particularly on the Tuesday update. We'll do all we can to prevent that.

Sorry for the inconvenience. Thanks to everyone who has communicated their support and well wishes. It sure would be nice if our luck would turn good right about now... -_-

IMPORTANT NOTE: One of our key colorists has the flu! Despite our best efforts, it appears very unlikely that Monday's THZ page can be completed in time for release. We apologize for the delay. :(

An RHB special shall be posted in place of the THZ update. Fan Requests for Tuesday and Thursday are not in danger, but the order of release will be a little funky as two pinups from a coloring team working on a later set are being accelerated to ensure we have something for the community. In short, we apologize for having to skip over some requests which are in various states of incompleteness. O.O

We're doing all we can to overcome this challenge and get back on track within the next week or two. Thanks for your patience and support!

Fetishes include: Bathing and Peeping!

PRODUCTION NOTES: Inspired by a Fan Request that we made for NavyPolice55 awhile back, we explored transplanting Shampoo from that onsen setting to her own bathroom. This allowed us to bring in Mousse as a voyeur and afforded us an opportunity to try some advanced techniques that we didn't have time for the first go around:

1. Using shadows for muscle definition and body contouring instead of hard black lines.
2. Wet hair that actually bends, drapes, and makes contact with Shampoo's body.
3. Soft white-edged water droplets with transparency effects.
4. Steam effects which interact with body parts, like the muff!
5. Full Showcase Color!

There are differences, but also some similarities (the arm pose and body orientation). Hinoron referred to this as a "remix", and I suppose that's pretty much bang on. Rare we circle back, but when we do it, we try to make it, ahem, SPECIAL. Enjoy!

Welcome back!

Reminder: If you can, please help the RHB team buy equipment and create art for our Virtual Novel projects by DONATING! The more funds we can raise, the more characters, costumes, poses, and expressions we can add to the Community Art Resource Library!

For those who missed Thursday's update, click on the "NEWS" button in the menu and read the latest entry in the Site News Archive. That will catch you up on the exciting possibilities that the Virtual Novel presents us!

If you haven't tried out the Hard Training Virtual Novel Demo yet, a link to it has been left at the bottom of the page for convenience.

Today, we unveil the companion gallery to this Virtual Novel game. We've created an image gallery where we will collect all the erotic pinup art in the game. That way, any community member can view the sexy game art whenever they wish, without having to replay the game to see it every time.

Our original plan for releasing this content was to post the game and the sexy pinup art from it at the same time, with the update consuming two days in the schedule (The same way other Comic Lord projects consumed two days, Monday and Friday). However, Pchan9000 wanted to avoid spoilers so that community members could play the game demo and be surprised at what- and who- got revealed. :)

The pinups posted in the Hard Training Image Gallery thus far are:

The Cover.The Start Screen.A Frown and Smile version of Ranma from the Start Screen.Cum variants of the Frown and Smile.Clean, textless art (UPDATE: Now available, thanks for your patience!)None of this would have been possible if Pchan9000 didn't get the ball rolling, so please do thank him for his creative vision and efforts on behalf of the community. :)

Welcome back!

Our final Comic Lord project preview is ready- and it's unlike any other project we've done here at the RHB to this point! It's a comic inside a game: a Virtual Novel!

Unlike our previous games to this point, this new Virtual Novel format does NOT rely on Flash. The game uses JavaScript, CSS, and HTML. This eliminates some of the worst drawbacks of our previous game releases (blurry art, poor scaling).

The Virtual Novel format also offers many advantages as well. In a comic, we often have to invest many panels setting up all the sexy action. Some of these panels are just talking heads, transitional pieces of art meant to get us to the good stuff. And while not flashy, the art panels are necessary to tell the story and consume considerable time and resources- efforts that COULD be better spent making more of the sexy action our community wants to see!

In the Virtual Novel format, we can draw upon a premade library of art to serve as such transitional material. If a story can be told using such material to lighten our art creation load, our artists can now focus on making the key art and glorious sex scenes! So if we need a nude Ranma with a teasing expression during the setup phase of the story, for example, we could dip into our gallery and select the appropriate pieces. The time invested becomes more on the coding side, which does take time, but doesn't have the huge expense that comes with drawing every panel of a comic anew.

This library of premade art of course doesn't yet exist. We still have to make a massive investment of time and money into creating this library. Body poses, costumes, faces are all needed- and for each character! Oh yes, the creation of this library will be an enormous challenge. But once created, the savings long term will dwarf that investment.

Today's demo will help showcase some of the art elements we have created so far. And the wonderful thing is we can KEEP adding new poses, costumes, and expressions for each girl to the gallery over time. When the gallery is large enough, we can even share these assets with community members, who can in turn use these to create their own Virtual Novel stories!

While we're still a long way from that- we're holding off on releasing the current art library just yet, both because it's quite shrimpy and it would sort of spoil the art for the Virtual Novel we're demoing today- this shared art asset gallery for RHB members to be used for community creation is our ultimate goal.

SHADE and I can't underscore enough the importance and opportunities of this Virtual Novel format. Ranma is an aging franchise and funds are ever harder to gather. Being able to focus the RHB's scant resources on the GOOD STUFF will let us remain ambitious with our storytelling even with a small budget. And, quite possibly, it could mean releasing more story content each week! Instead of getting 1 or 2 comic pages, imagine getting a full scene, chapter or episode of content! It's possible, but we'll need the community's support to make it happen.

I've asked for donations before, but perhaps the community needed to see this project to get truly excited about lending further support to our cause. This Virtual Novel format may very well be the future of RHB storytelling, the way we ensure that Ranma survives another decade and hopefully for much, much longer.

If those in the community can donate- to help us get the equipment (SHADE's computer) and create the art for our library of character content- we could very well be on the cusp of kickstarting an age where we return to what we used to be- not merely the RHB team making stories, but an entire COMMUNITY making art and stories! That's why we created Comic Lords. And that's why we are so pumped for this Virtual Novel format. We want to help foster Community Creation and believe this project is the way forward!

But we can't do it alone. If you can help us in this cause, PLEASE DONATE! The more funds we can raise, the more characters, costumes, poses, and expressions we can add to the community art resource library!

We loathe asking for donations, our community has given so much and we would not be here without them, but we believe that if this project succeeds, we'll have a library of art to help cut our costs and tell stories quicker, which means we won't HAVE to be doing endless donation drives. AND since we plan to SHARE this library with our membership, it opens the door for anyone in our community willing to learn the Virtual Novel format an opportunity to tell their stories! Yes, Donation Drives SUCK, but we want THIS to be the Drive to end all Drives!

Next month, we'll give the community a breakdown of how much we've raised for the Community Art Resource Library thus far and how much we'll need to reach our goals. Thank you to everyone who gives and plans to give!

Now that I have finished my Starving African Child pitch, apologies community, let's talk about the FIRST Virtual Novel project: Hard Training!

Starring Nodoka, Ranma-chan and (for now) an off-screen Ryoga, this Virtual Novel demo offers you just a taste of what the RHB will be able to do in the future!

The game interface is pretty simple. Either click or hit spacebar to advance the story. There will be a few choices that crop up. Answer well, you get rewarded. Answer poorly, you might miss out. But hey, it's a short demo, and you can always replay it! ^_-

And for those hunting around, you might discover a revealing Easter Egg at the very end!

We owe an incredible debt of gratitude to Comic Lord Pchan9000. Not only for starting this project, but it was he who made us aware of the Virtual Novel format and what it could mean for our website. It was Pchan9000 who suggested, months ago, that this Virtual Novel project might be what we need to help get funding for SHADE's computer (which is still desperately needed, we're about 45 percent funded and hope to make up the difference by the end of October). Hope he was right! And hope that everyone loves the demo and sees the incredible potential before us!

Tomorrow, we'll be releasing some Key Art from the Hard Training Game Demo. The Community Art Resource Library won't be available right away, but we're hoping to add it early next year when it contains substantial costumes, poses, expressions, and- especially- characters. Getting SHADE the equipment he needs to keep this great art coming out every week- and hopefully upgrading the quality of the art too, 4K baby- must remain our immediate and urgent concern. But once that is done, we'll turn our attention towards that Community Art Resource Library, with a goal of growing it robust enough for all community members to tell whatever stories they wish!

None of this would have been possible if Pchan9000 didn't get the ball rolling, so please do thank him for his creative vision and efforts on behalf of the community. :)

What do you think about our plans to make Virtual Novel games and a Community Art Resource Library? Join us over at the forums and share your thoughts with the community.

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Reminder: For the back half of the week, we'll be releasing the preview for Comic Lord Pchan9000's project... and it just may be our most ambitious project yet! ^_^

Defender Specials Pages 490, 491, 492 & 493 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, we have the Master Art from the 2nd sexy scene of Dessert at Ucchan's! And this pinup set comes in two flavors: clothed and nude!

It's possible that some will view the release of these Master Art pinup sets as "double dipping". And without a doubt, economics played a big role in deciding how to release the art for the game. The Flash format hasn't been popular, which means donations to support it were virtually non-existent. :(

Money wasn't the only reason behind this release though. For those who simply can't run Flash- or don't want to- this is the only way for them to enjoy the art. And we do want the community to have a way to enjoy it, in whatever format they prefer. While many do not like the Flash format, and this is understandable, we are still very proud of the art we made for the project, and hope the community felt it was ultimately a fun and worthwhile addition to our galleries.

However, we believe that our time with Flash has come to an end. In the future, we'll be pursuing animation in another format, perhaps using simple loops to start. If this is the type of content that you'd like to see, please chime in on the forum or email us. And if you couldn't care less, no worries, we are ever committed to making art in our traditional pinup and comic format. That won't be changing and we appreciate everyone in our community who continues to support our projects- especially when they're experimental and not entirely successful. O.O

Our hearts were in the right place here. Flash didn't work out, but we'll continue to explore exciting new possibilities for Ranma hentai... and one such possibility will be showcased this Thursday! Be sure to visit, you won't want to miss it!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

We hope that our community enjoyed the Flash Animation, "Dessert at Ucchan's", which we released last week! However, we know that Flash is a dying format. Support is becoming sparse, and some of our community simply can't- or don't want to- experience content in this format.

Fair enough. While we don't have the ability to convert this into a different format just yet (we're working on loops), we do have the ability to release the Master Art we used to create the animation, which is what we shall do today and tomorrow. Each release will contain a text version and clean... with a little bonus for tomorrow's update.

For the back half of the week, we'll be releasing the preview for Comic Lord Pchan9000's project... and it just may be our most ambitious project yet! ^_^

Defender Specials Pages 488 & 489 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, we have the Master Art from the 1st sexy scene of Dessert at Ucchan's!

Look for the Master Art for the 2nd scene tomorrow. ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

We have a surprise in store for everyone today!

Sometimes, I'm asked: "Deep, when are the RHB Animated Games ever coming back?"

...TODAY!!! ^_^

Our latest, and hopefully greatest offering yet:

DESSERT AT UCCHAN'S

Starring Akane and Ukyo!

We've doubled your pleasure with this game! In the first phase, Ukyo expertly prepares her dessert-Akane! And in the second phase, Akane thanks Ukyo for the food with her own service! These girls are definitely the best dishes in the shop! ^_-

Special thanks to "Soapfiction" who inspired the art behind today's game!

Core game features include:

-Music (can be turned off)

-Sound FX (can be turned off)

-Replay (game repeats the loop minus the copyright page)

-A button to advance the game, located in the bottom right corner (simple arrow this time, since some found Panda Genma a bit intrusive in the first RHB game).

-"FAST" and "SLOW" settings!

-A "CUM" setting! Now you can decide when the girls - and you- are ready to pop!

NOTE: Due to some technical limitations, mainly that we're struggling to get Flash to scale well, it's vital to view this one full screen in your web browser, cause the scaling is UNKIND to it and things WILL be blurry. The hotkey to switch to full screen on most browsers is F11.

Also, there is a gray screen frame near the start, after the Ranmabooks.com page. It was meant to be a title page, but we cut it- yet haven't found a way to cut out that frame from the game yet as we had already compiled it. For now, just click the arrow in the bottom right to advance into the animation, we'll try to remove this pesky extra frame at a future date. Apologies, we're still novices at this game business! <blush>

For those keeping score, this is our third official Game! And we hope there'll be more (in a VASTLY superior format than FLASH), but we need your support to make it happen!

Here's a word about that from SHADE:

"Hi Gang. This Flash Game is not really 1 game, but 2! It has two unique animated sexy scenes, each with 3 unique modes! As you can imagine, this was FEROCIOUSLY EXPENSIVE to make. O.O

For this reason, the game will have to stand as our content for the entire week. Realistically it cost enough to span TWO weeks, but we can't possibly make everyone wait two whole weeks for more art, so we hope you'll be understanding that we need to have this count for at least one week of content... and ask for some financial help to cover the rest of the costs. $_$_

If you love this experiment in animation, and would like to encourage more- or perhaps just thank us for pulling off this great labor of love- or to help me get a new computer, as that's still a pressing issue- please consider donating! It'd really be appreciated!

HELP SUPPORT RHB ANIMATIONS HERE!

Thanks for reading and enjoy DESSERT AT UCCHAN'S!"

And unto this, Akane, destined to wear the jeweled crown of Nerima upon a troubled brow! Betrayed from within, her Kingdom's only hope is the purple barbarian from across the sea!

Journey with us now to the days of High Adventure!

The story is by Comic Lord "Derekloffin"! Amazon is a loving tribute to both Conan the Barbarian and fantasy fare. This is one of our favorites and we hope you'll love it too!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Reminder: Due to much needed additional tinkering and polish, Thursday's Fan Request was moved to Friday (today). If you are visiting in the hopes of reading the first story page of MTP, please note that was posted this past Thursday instead and can be viewed in the MTP gallery!

We apologize for any confusion this scheduling change caused, but are pleased to report that the extra production time was well spent and we're definitely very proud of the results! Good things do take time, but we'll try to keep such sudden changes of schedule to a minimum going forward. ^_^

However, we also have some extra MTP content! Call it a Black Beak approved boon for the delay of releasing the latest Fan Request. The new pinup is a larger version of Princess Aloi featured in MTP-02 and has a new, suitably Egyptian background theme!

Important Notice: Donation Drive rewards should go out this weekend, most likely on Sunday. Rewards will include the Kumicho THZ4 scene and a special exclusive, Donation Drive Donor only Summer of Shampoo pinup set! So if you would like to see this art and HELP GET SHADE A NEW COMPUTER: PLEASE DONATE!

We appreciate the community's support! We're now slightly over halfway to our fundraising goal and have a good shot to get there by the end of summer if support remains consistent. Thanks to everyone who has donated and plans to donate!

Now, let's finally get this Fan Request pinup set!

Fan Requests Pages 1589 & 1590 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's request, we journey back in time to when Akane first met Ranma-chan! It was love at first sight... even if she didn't really want to admit it. Oh yes, the attraction was strong... until the pesky BOY-SIDE showed up and set their relationship back years! Well, in this universe, Akane decided she wasn't going to settle for Ranma's girl-side being her part-time lover!

Special thanks to "Briancs159" for contributing the idea for this pinup set.

Fetishes include: Kissing (French), Fingering, Lesbian, and Bondage!

Welcome back!

My Teacher is My Princess Pages 01 & 02 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

Whoa, wait, TWO pages, what's the story behind THAT?!

After studying the ultimate art layout, it was felt that panel 1 was towering over the other panels, shrinking down details too much for full-sized viewing. For this reason, panel 1 was moved to its "own page" for easier readability. While now split into two pages officially, keep in mind this art was originally constructed as a single, large page for the purposes of art production.

Second bit of business- why are we releasing a Showcase Comic page on a Thursday? As it turns out, the colorist needs some additional time preparing the next Fan Request. With no available substitute, we decided to move up MTP instead. Note, the completed Fan Request should post sometime Friday, but it could be a little later than normal as we finalize details such as background and dialog (text). Thanks for your understanding and patience!

Now let's get to the comic!

In today's update, a trip to the museum has Hinako bursting with energy- and Ranma "dying"! O.O

The story is by Comic Lord "Black Beak"! A stickler for details and excellence, expect big- and little-things from My Teacher is My Princess!

This is a "Teaser Week" where we're releasing the cover and first page of the project! We hope you'll enjoy and look forward to seeing more from this comic later in the year!

Reminder: the RHB needs to upgrade some computer equipment. As you know, we use 100 percent of all funds to make art each month, which means we can't easily afford such pricey expenses. O.O

Making matters even more complicated, it's SHADE'S computer that needs replacement. It's 8 years old, practically as old as Happosai in computer years, and faring much worse! And since all art we make comes through his machine at some point in the pipeline, it's vital that we figure out a way to raise the funds for this soon.

We're hoping our community can help us out by making donations towards this cause. There are going to be benefits for the community too. Part of our goal with this computer replacement is to get a machine that is truly 4k capable! Imagine having a 4k, Ultra High-Definition option (along with our typical art size)! And being able to render art with a more powerful machine will also let us crank up the detail on art that would otherwise make the old machine choke. So if you help SHADE by donating, not only will you be saving his grateful butt, but also helping to improve art the RHB makes in the future!

Of course, we know folks have to be pragmatic. It's hard to scrape together extra cash for donations, and you already pay a membership fee to the RHB which is greatly appreciated. So this is strictly a give if you can request.

However, if that doesn't sway you, there are some incentives! ^_-

SHADE and I have decided that anyone who donates at least $25 by July 17th will get to see the THZ4 Kumicho scene teased in the last update in its entirety! You'll get to read it a full month before its released on this site! And there'll be a special "Donor Exclusive" thank you pinup special included. ^_^

We always hate asking yet more from our community, so please accept our apologies for it. We know our community gives us all we can, and in turn we'll try to do the same and give everything we have to make the RHB art ever better and worthy of your incredible support!

If you'd like to make a donation, please do so here:

THZ4 is taking a break until August, but RHB comics won't be!

We debut the first of multiple exciting and experimental Comic Lord stories in development at the RHB! We've been thrilled to see all the fresh, inventive ideas brought to us by the Comic Lords, exploring directions and aspects of the Ranma-verse we wouldn't have thought of on our own, and now we can present them to all of you as well!

Reminder: Our THZ4 Ranma-chan Costume and Hairstyle poll is now closed!

For a complete tally, check out the poll results here!

If you lurk, and MANY do, I know, here are the results without having to log into the forum!

Thanks to all who participated! The community chosen design will manifest when THZ4 returns in August!

Important: Starting next week, we will be rolling out teasers for our new Comic Lord projects!

Each new comic will get its own week where the cover and first page will be posted.

First up will be "Queen of the Ring" by SwordKing! Check back Monday for more info!

THZ4 Update: We are aware that waiting for nearly 2 months for THZ4 to return is a long time. While we do have some art that is inked, the next block of pages are still being colored. This is the result of us having spent time recently coloring and preparing our Comic Lord projects for release. So you see, once the Comic Lord project teasers are all set and posted, THZ4 can then roll out. And this time, we won't stop until the book has come to its Sextacular finish! :)

There will be an opportunity for community members to get a Sneak Peek at the Kumicho scene (teased on the last THZ update) in its entirety later this month- AND a chance to drool over the new Ranma-chan design based on the poll results!

Check back with us Tuesday, July 4th for that info! Or, more likely for our readers in the U.S.A., check us out Wednesday after the holiday! ^_-

Okay, now let's talk art!

Originally, there was a Special featuring Shampoo planned for today. However, this one will need some extra polish, so we're going to release that later in the month. Instead, we'll be posting a Fan Request featuring everyone's favorite horny devil- make that horny ONI! :)

Fan Requests Pages 1569, 1570, 1571 & 1572 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's request, a truly possessed Ranma can't resist Nodoka- or is it Nodoka can't resist Ranma? ^_-

We don't have much money for advertising because we put everything into the art we make. So we ask our community members to please share this pinup set far and wide, sharing their own love of the RHB in the process. What better advertising could there be than that? Thank you to everyone who chooses to help out and keep the RHB mission going! :)

In today's request pinup, we visit yet another alternate world where Ranma first meets Shampoo as a MALE instead of a female!

A quick bit of history: Ranma and Genma visit Shampoo's village, starving, and eat a feast that was meant for the winner of a tournament. Shampoo is outraged and makes challenge, only to be swiftly defeated by Ranma!

However, as Ranma is a boy this go around, instead of getting the Kiss of Death Ranma gets a kiss on the lips- and a whole lot more. O.O

This isn't the only part of their relationship that gets accelerated. While Ranma has historically rejected Shampoo's advances, the wily Amazon has found a way to win him over... though it's possible the feast softened him up a bit too! ^_-

Sticklers are probably thinking, "How does Shampoo know so much Japanese already?" ...different universe, remember? Probably best not to sweat it! ^_-

Lastly, since the page is quite wide, we have included a cropped alternate clean version that focuses on the characters.

Note 1: For presentational reasons we decided to release this request as two installments, which we hope will help improve the nifty effect on display.

Note 2: Whenever possible, we will always post variants on the same update day, like we did this time, provided the art is not substantially different. Such exclusions would be: extremely complex costumes, changes in body positions, and on occasion extreme effects such as cum showers etc. Some of those possibilities require nearly a new page to be created, while others are very time consuming and our schedule would only allow their creation through posting the additional art over the course of two days of content slots. Bottom line, again, whenever we can post variants the same day, we will! :)

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

REMINDER: LAST DAY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE YEAR LONG JH SIDEKICK PASS:

VISIT THE RHB MEMBER ONLY SPECIAL DISCOUNT PAGE FOR JUSTICE HENTAI HERE!

We ring in the new year by beginning Fan Request Mania!

For the month of January, we'll be running Fan Requests every week. Look for THZ4 to return next month, with a reenergized art team and so much BOOTY!

Also, I'd like to once again thank everyone who gave to the Donation Drive of 2015. Because of these generous community members, 2016 was a full year of 5 updates per week!

Sadly, all good things do come to an end. We've exhausted those funds, and must now adjust our release schedule based on our current levels of support.

But what is that level? SHADE and I realize that we need to do a better job of communicating how much support we have, and how much funding we need to get back to 5 updates per week.

For this reason, we have created a "State of Ranmabooks.com" page. This monthly report we'll give our community a clear picture of how much support we have and how much we need to reach our next goal.

This page also explains ways to help the RHB reach our production goals sooner.

We encourage everyone to visit the "State of Ranmabooks.com" page. For those who want to cut to the quick, the bottom line is we only have enough funding for 4 updates each week at present: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. Wednesday has gone dark this month. =(

That's how things stand THIS month (January 2017). However, each month, we're going to tally the support we've received, including memberships, commissions, and donations. We'll then update the "State of Ranmabooks.com" page, and if we reach our funding Milestone Goal, we'll increase the amount of art we release for the next month.

This monthly tracking system will let us increase or decrease production appropriately based on the RHB's current level of support!

For example, say we're at 4 updates per week in January. We need $800 USD to increase production to 5 updates. If we receive that funding between January 1st and January 31st, then in February we'll release 5 updates per week and this will be announced on the "State of Ranmabooks.com" page.

If funding remains steady, 5 updates per month will continue in March. If funding levels dip, we can drop back to 4 updates. This way, the community has a direct and more immediate impact on how much art we can release every month.

So why did we ditch a 2017 Donation Drive in favor of this system? Because of feedback we received during the 2015 Donation Drive. It was difficult for many community members to make large donations in a limited span of time. By letting members donate when their finances permit, it's a lot more flexible. There's no time limit, the page is always there. People can see what our situation is, and they can decide if they want to help out that month or not. It's totally optional, and we won't bug anyone about it. But to those who help us out, you have our thanks!

Regarding donations, some of you may be wondering: what if I make a donation, but the RHB doesn't reach its fundraising goal? Is my donation wasted? I can give you assurances that it will not be. We'll always use that money to either improve art quality (like boosting Fan Requests to Showcase Quality, same as our comics) OR we'll apply any excess funds towards the following month. That means it should get progressively easier to reach our next Milestone goal, provided support remains steady. So if we don't have a month with 5 updates in February or March, the chances we'll get there by say April or May become much higher. Nothing will be wasted! ^_^

Speaking of Showcase Quality Fan Requests, the team has decided that while we can no longer maintain 5 updates per week, we'll try to make up for the lack of art quantity with art quality. While today's Fan Request and most Fan Requests posted in January will have normal color quality, starting in February you'll begin to see Fan Requests in full showcase quality once again (much better than the old stuff from the early 2010's). Wish we could make this switch right away, but with our art team only recently returning from the holiday break, and much of the art you'll see this month having begun production last month before the team decided to make this change, we need a little time to build up steam. But once we do, and you see the quality of your Fan Requests, I hope you'll agree the wait was worth it! :)

Lastly (sorry for the wall of text, so much news to go over today), the RHB is pleased to announce that we will be offering a new RHB membership tier aimed at increasing the amount of comics we produce at the RHB! The new tier will be called "Comic Lord", and while EXPENSIVE, it will allow an RHB community member to request COMIC ART instead of pinup art! And unlike commissioning Naughty Bits pages, there will be NO STORY LENGTH LIMIT. For example, if you have a 20 page story you want to tell, as a Comic Lord you can! There will be other exclusive perks too for this special tier, and the details of this will be revealed January 15th.

Please note: THERE WILL ONLY BE 6 COMIC LORD SLOTS offered. This is due to production capacity, as comics are the biggest investment of time our artists make. Once those 6 Comic Lord slots are full, you won't be able to join that tier or commission comics from us (because we will be at maximum capacity), not until someone relinquishes their Comic Lord status by letting it expire. And knowing some of the talented lemon writers in our community, I have doubts these slots are going to become available again all that often. O.O

That's all the news I have about the Comic Lord tier for now. If you want to upgrade your membership to that exclusive tier, check back with us on January 15th (Yes, a Sunday)! We look forward to making your comics! :)

In summary, it's now 2017 and the RHB will have less quantity (at least temporarily), but more quality, and most importantly- more COMICS! I truly believe this could be our best year yet, so please continue to help support us in 2017 and make it so!

Any questions or concerns about any of this, please email me (Deep Star), SHADE, or post your question/concern on the forum!

Okay, now let's get to the good stuff- the art! ^_^

Welcome back! Our next stop- The Hentai Zone!

We hope everyone had the merriest of holidays!

The Hentai Zone 4 2017 preview is now available for your viewing enjoyment! This will be the last THZ update of 2016, and the comic will be going on a brief hiatus until the conclusion of Fan Request Mania (which begins January 2017).

Although our artists are now on holiday break, spending much deserved time with family and friends, they prepared a special sneak peak of what's on the horizon for The Hentai Zone 4! We hope you enjoy it!

NOTE: Ranma-chan will be appearing in the second act of THZ4, as promised, but her art wasn't at an advanced enough stage to be included in this preview. Nevertheless, expect our favorite redhead to play a prominent part in future THZ4 events! ^_^

REMINDER: Special RHB Member only art sale! (Updated to include Art Previews!)

For a limited time (December 23rd - January 2nd) we are offering a 1-year Justice Hentai Sidekick pass for just $4.95 per month! Total price is $59.40, a savings of $120! That's by far the best discount ever offered in that website's history- and we are only offering it to members of the RHB!

You'll get access to all the JH art ever made, plus 2 new updates* posted every Monday and Friday! (*The number of updates per week is based on overall support. If membership goes up, the number of updates can go up!)

Here's some completed art pages to give you an idea of what to expect:

Harley Quinn has a ball! (By Tenzen)

Wonder Woman tries to get off the Naughty List- while getting off! (By Candle)

Wolverine's Christmas Gift (By Tink)

Peggy Carter's Sloppy Salute (By new artist KinkyJimmy)

There are thousands of pages of art at Justice Hentai, all but ensuring that you'll find something you enjoy. ^_^

Note though you won't be able to make art requests. That's how we're able to offer such an incredible discount. However, should you at any time during your membership decide to upgrade to a Hero account to make art requests, we will give you a prorated discount based on the amount of time you have left on your membership. So there's no wasted money for upgrading your membership! ^_^

We realize that not everyone is necessarily a fan of superhero art. But please keep in mind that many of the artists you love at the RHB moonlight over at Justice Hentai. If you're a fan of their art (Sulca, Tenzen, Nikochan), please consider signing up anyway to support them and make their holidays a bit brighter! I know they will greatly appreciate it. ^_^

Welcome back! Our next stop- The Hentai Zone!

The Hentai Zone 4 Page 32 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, Ranma meets the Principal of Furinkan. A meeting that could only take place in The Hentai Zone!

With this update, we have completed ACT 1 of our comic. This will be the last story update of THZ4 this year. In January, we shall be running our first Fan Request Mania event since 2015! This will give our artists some time to spend with their families for the holidays, and time to recharge their batteries for ACT 2, which yes, will feature our favorite redhead! ^_-

But fret not, our artists worked diligently to prepare a special preview of ACT 2 which will be posted Monday!

Speaking of holiday art, due to our commitments from the donation drive, we chose not to break for holiday updates this year. However, we'll be releasing a little something on Wednesday next week inspired from our friend Black Beak!

Pivoting away from RHB art a moment, we're pleased to announce a special RHB Member only art sale!

From time to time, an RHB member will ask if being a member of this website means they can get a discount on our other websites. Due to the cost of art, and the discounts already offered for signing up for a longer membership, I've always had to sadly say "no". =(

But today, I'm excited to say the answer is YES!

For a limited time (December 23rd - January 2nd) we will offer a 1-year Justice Hentai Sidekick pass for just $4.95 per month! Total price is $59.40, a savings of $120! That's by far the best discount ever offered in that website's history- and we are only offering it to members of the RHB!

For the patient, I think your faith will be well rewarded.

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Double Vision Pages 15, 16 & 17 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, we reach the end with a trio of pinups based on the cover which include:

A single, solid version of Ranma as seen on the cover. A cumtacular variation of that pose, with new expression and (obviously) plenty of spoooge! The cumtacular variation in DOUBLE VISION! \m/ \m/On a personal note, I'd like to say that I NEVER expected to help create a comic with Happosai as the male lead. With no shortage of male studs from the franchise to choose from, it's safe to say that the Elder Letch would be near the bottom of the list of obvious hentai candidates. O.O

We were so concerned about using Happosai in this story that we chose to keep his involvement a mystery. The goal wasn't to trick readers, apologies if it seemed that way to some, but rather to let the story unfold naturally and let each person judge it with an open mind- a mind free from the expectations and preconceptions of what a Happosai starring comic would be like. It was hoped that if, given a chance, Double Vision would surprise and delight readers who wouldn't expect to enjoy a Happosai comic.

Though Double Vision was not created by the RHB without considerable trepidation, we felt that if you believe in the story, then you should make it- and make it something to be proud of! That was the goal, we gave our best, and now our community will have their say. ^_^

What did you think of this comic? Join us over at the forums and share your thoughtful reviews about Double Vision with the community!

Now, as some of you may have guessed, (WARNING, SPOILERS AHEAD!) we did NOT kill Happosai. We love all the Ranma characters so much, it would be very hard to deep six any of them. X_X

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books and Happy Independence Day to our readers in the States!

Important Update from Hinoron:

The next round of Booty Hunter, our weekend forum game, has begun with a SPANKING new prize to be won! ^_-

And for those who haven't played in awhile, reminder: we've made a few changes to make the game less frustrating to newer players, and streamlined some parts that older players had already worked out an easy method to get around anyway. :P

The target images Defenders are hunting for are now:

* 50% larger.

* Singular (not 4-square) and will not include three "wrong" images that had been mirrored or flipped. (Rotating the target image is still on the table however! ;)

If you've yet to play this season, we have a pretty impressive commission-level prize pinup we're handing out to winners who can find the target from somewhere in our collections of sexy books! Hopefully if you found the game frustrating, we've plucked the most annoying parts of it out now, so give it another whirl.

In today's update, we conclude our story- for now- with Akane's return and Kasumi's departure!

While Laundry Day is presented as a mini-comic, we were happily surprised that this story struck a chord with many readers, garnering much interest and speculation. We agree that there is more fertile ground to cover, and we're open to exploring another chapter of this tale at a future date, so we won't be marking this comic as "complete".

For now, we'll gather feedback, and perhaps revisit Laundry Day in the future. ^_^

Queen of the Grill Pages 74, 75 & 76 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In QotG's final update, we finish the comic on a sweet note- especially for Ranma-chan. ^_-

Please note, we've also included full-sized art of Ranma's stripper poses from page 47 and 48, which were requested by community members. Little extra, extra bonus. ^_^

If you'd like to share your thoughts on the book, please join us on the forums and POST YOUR REVIEW HERE.

Queen of the Grill is not merely the completion of a single story, but the culmination of seeds planted across many books. Nabiki's ascension from hustling performer in Queen of the Night to corrupt club owner, Ranma's narcissistic need for the spotlight in The Moe Idol matched by an audience's unquenchable desire for his girl-side's exotic body, Akane's voyeurism fetish from The Scout, The Witch, and the Warrior blossoming into a swinging lifestyle, and Ukyo's perpetual frustration at seemingly being the only hottie in Nerima Ranma hasn't hooked up with OVER at long last- all these threads have been woven together to make the tapestry of QotG.

On behalf of the RHB team, I'd like to thank each and every community member who has been with us through it all for the entire journey. We hope you've enjoyed the harvest, and that the long wait was worth it for their shippers and Ranma fans alike. :D

But all good things must come to an end. And we feel we've reached the end of this particular continuity in the Multiverse of Hentai that is the RHB. We may revisit it again someday, if inspiration for a new tale is found, but for now we turn our attention to different universes with different sexy possibilities for our beloved Ranma characters.

So for the time being, Naughty Bits will be running on Mondays and Fridays. The NB format we'll give us the opportunity to focus on some fresher faces such as Kodachi and Kasumi, who'll each be getting their own mini-comic!

And on the not so distant horizon is the RHB's next big Showcase Comic, one that's been in the making for half a decade- The Hentai Zone! We'll be completing The Hentai Zone 2 Redux, as well as forging a new chapter with The Hentai Zone 4, where the first ever Pimpmistress of Furinkan shall rise!

2016 is shaping up to be one of the most ambitious years in the RHB's history and the team is hard at work at making it the BEST year yet, so we hope you'll continue to support our projects and keep Ranma Hentai going strong for years to come!

Reminder from Hinoron:

Attention past and potential interested players of the Booty Hunter game we entertain ourselves with in the forums on weekends: We've made a few changes to make the game less frustrating to newer players, and streamlined some parts that older players had already worked out an easy method to get around anyway. :P

The target images Defenders are hunting for are now:

- * 50% larger.

- * Singular (not 4-square) and will not include three "wrong" images that had been mirrored or flipped. (Rotating the target image is still on the table however! ;)

If you've yet to play this season, we have a pretty impressive commission-level prize pinup we're handing out to winners who can find the target from somewhere in our collections of sexy books! Hopefully if you found the game frustrating, we've plucked the most annoying parts of it out now, so give it another whirl.

Reminder from Hinoron:

Attention past and potential interested players of the Booty Hunter game we entertain ourselves with in the forums on weekends: We've made a few changes to make the game less frustrating to newer players, and streamlined some parts that older players had already worked out an easy method to get around anyway. :P

The target images Defenders are hunting for are now:

- * 50% larger.

- * Singular (not 4-square) and will not include three "wrong" images that had been mirrored or flipped. (Rotating the target image is still on the table however! ;))

If you've yet to play this season, we have a pretty impressive commission-level prize pinup we're handing out to winners who can find the target from somewhere in our collections of sexy books! Hopefully if you found the game frustrating, we've plucked the most annoying parts of it out now, so give it another whirl.

In today's update, we dream of warmer weather, beaches, bikinis, and Shampoo. So let's do a pinup set with all of the above!

We've also included a nude version because nude beaches should be as common as the hot girls who visit them! And because we make adult art, so nudity is sorta expected. =P

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

With the Donation Drive over, technically there's no official way to acquire the pinups we offered as incentive for the Donation Drive. Some of our community members have wondered if we'd eventually release these pics on the RHB, with each pinup consuming a valuable content slot. That's good, because there are those in the community who haven't seen this art yet. It's also bad, because part of our community has already seen the art, and might not see any new art for quite awhile if we released them all this way! X_X

I know many of you WANTED to donate, and could not for financial reasons. This is the season of giving, and we're not going to leave those less fortunate out in the cold. The Donation Drive was successful, we recouped all the costs of the incentive pinups, as well as the funding to help us complete many key projects for 2016. Our community was generous to us, so we want to return that generosity by releasing all the $50 donation tier rewards for the entire community to enjoy as our holiday gift. That's 16 pages of art (7 unique pinups), and probably a record for a single-day release. O.O

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays to all! ^_^

We're kicking off the Yuletide season with our customary kinky holiday updates! So for the next few weeks, holiday art will be released Monday through Thursday. And, in an RHB first, the content will feature ideas posted by our community on the RHB forums. For those who don't mind spoilers, you can view the holiday template thread. ^_^

On Fridays we will continue to post the next Queen of the Grill page, as mentioned previously in the December RHB Calendar of Events. Look for the normal release schedule for that comic to return in January.

Now let's find out who's been naughty this holiday season. ♥_♥

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Donation Drive tally is complete. In total, we raised $15,420! Thanks to the support of our community, we've achieved the following milestone goals for 2016:

- New Animation budget secured!
- The long delayed conclusion to The Hentai Zone 2: Redux will be completed, expanded and enhanced!
- The Hentai Zone 4 will begin active release before the end of 2016!
- There will be 5 new, unique art updates each and every week. No more preview art!

Though we fell short of achieving our last milestone goal, the excess $3,420 will be put towards art production for 2017. If our membership holds steady, there is a high probability that we will not have to run another Donation Drive next year to maintain our weekly update schedule. Which is good, because we absolutely do not want to become the PBS of hentai, begging for donations every year. Our fundraising is done, and our focus now is 100 percent on making the best Ranma Hentai possible in the year to come!

Speaking of art, this is a reminder that holiday updates begin next week. Showcase Comic lovers do not despair, new QotG content will be released every Friday for the rest of the month. Expect QotG to return to its normal full time schedule in January. ^_^

UPDATE: The Donation Drive has come to an end. Before we announce the results, each donation will be re-counted to ensure accuracy. Look for the final tally Friday.

Please be aware that all donation rewards have been distributed, excluding the Christmas Raffle participant reward which will be sent out before New Year's Day. If you have not received your rewards yet- perhaps the junk/spam filter ate the email- contact us using the appropriate menu link button and we'll process the request ASAP.

We here at the RHB extend our thanks to each and every community member who participated in the Donation Drive. Because of your generosity, 2016 will feature:

-New Animation!

-The long delayed conclusion to The Hentai Zone 2: Redux will be completed, expanded and enhanced!

-The Hentai Zone 4 will begin active release before the end of 2016!

-There will be 5 new, unique art updates each and every week. No more preview art!

None of this would have been possible had our community not stepped up and made it so. We're incredibly humbled by the show of support, and the team will work its tails off harder (somehow, even if it requires the creation of a 26-hour day) to ensure that 2016 is the RHB's best year yet! ^_^

So far, only 3 community members have qualified. 2 more are close to the mark, but have not yet donated the full 1000 USD. If you plan to enter, please contact me (Deep Star) immediately and declare your intention to enter. As long as the donation is pledged today, you'll still qualify (even if the donation takes a few days to process electronically, that's okay, but all donations that are pledged must clear by December 24th to ensure your Raffle entry).

I must stress that the RHB team has decided to NEVER offer a Lifetime Subscription again. This is the one and only opportunity to obtain it. And it's our last chance as a community to push the donation total high enough to make our next Milestone Goal- guaranteeing 6 updates in 2016 (3 comic pages, 3 pinups each week with no preview art).

The Donation Drive has over 10k in donations to go before we reach that goal, it appears increasing unlikely we will get there. That's a bummer, but I don't want our community members to feel like donations past this point are a waste. Every dollar donated will be applied to future art content. So let's say, for example, we make it to 16k. We'll take the leftover donations and put it towards art creation in 2017 (with some bonus art updates possible in 2016 as well). Those extra funds could mean no need for another Donation Drive in 2017. Perhaps no need for a Donation Drive in 2018, and beyond. And that's equally important to us, because we don't want to become the PBS (Wikipedia?) of Hentai, where we're always begging for donations every year. -_-

So with all that said, I want to once again on behalf of the team give a big THANK YOU to everyone who has donated thus far. The way the community has supported us, helping us keep Ranma Hentai going strong in 2016- with the potential to make it the best year we've ever had- you'll never know how much we appreciate it, how humbled we are by it, and how hard our team is pushing ourselves to be worthy of that support. ^_^

If you haven't given yet, or you wish to enter the Raffle, please consider visiting the Donation Drive Page and making a donation to get us to our next Milestone Goal a little faster. Thanks to everyone who gives and plans to give!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

There are now only 11 days remaining in the Donation Drive. At this time I will reveal which community members (so far) have donated 1k and will be taking part in the RHB Lifetime Membership Christmas Raffle:

-Pchan9000, Dchevy

Only two people have donated at least 1k and are eligible. Will more join the list before the end of the Donation Drive?

NOTE: Zanthador64 has already donated 5k and claimed his Lifetime Membership, so he is not an entrant in the Raffle. He was also given a special bonus prize (that he chose) in recognition of his Legendary Support, Lifetime Membership to Justice Hentai and Enchanted Hentai. Much gratitude to our sister websites for helping out the RHB. ^_^

CRITICAL UPDATE: After much deliberation, Shade and I feel that we will NOT BE OFFERING THE LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP OPTION AGAIN going forward. Not in Donation Drives, or as an option on the RHB signup page. Lifetime Memberships provide a great help short term, but death to content long term. Since our community is small, and our desire to finish projects and increase art dates for 2016 so great, we included it as a carrot, fully realizing that only a handful may actually take advantage. But we don't want our community to believe that this opportunity will appear again in the future, because it won't. It can't. We realize that we need regular support to keep Ranma Hentai going forever, which has been our goal since the beginning.

The only way to get an RHB Lifetime Membership (ever) is to donate 5k by December 15th (Special Prizes available to those who reach that mark by that Calendar Date), or donate 1k and enter the Christmas Raffle (which right now has amazing odds to all the entrants), or lastly, should you be an entrant but not win the Raffle, you will be given the opportunity to donate 4k more in 2016 and, if you reach 5k total donations by December 31st, 2016 you will still receive the Lifetime Membership.

If you plan to enter the Christmas Raffle, but haven't been able to donate the 1k yet, please contact me using the "contact us" button above, and let it be known you plan to enter (this is important since there's going to be a special exclusive prize for Raffle participants, but how epic it is depends on how many people enter).

I've spoken to a lot of members, some who fear that Lifetime Memberships could mean long term death if too many people did it, and I hope this response settles those concerns. We're in this for the long haul.

So why do it? The bottom line is, Shade and I dreamt of going back to 6 updates per week, even if only for a year, and this seemed the best path to that. As we look and see that the drive has over 10k in donations to go before we reach that goal, it appears increasing unlikely we will get there. That's a bummer, but I don't want our community members to feel like donations past this point are a waste. Every dollar donated will be applied to future art content. So let's say, for example, we make it to 16k. We'll take the leftover donations and put it towards art creation in 2017 (with some bonus art updates possible in 2016 as well). In today's update, we have the final part of our remastered Midnight Movie Mayhem comic!

Gasp

Collapse

Oh boy, the RHB took on this challenge of remastering MMM with the intent of only changing a few things and improving the resolution of each page (the big visual enhancement). But once we studied the material, reconnected with it, our passion and love for the book compelled us to make dozens upon dozens of additional repairs. Backgrounds, character art, dialog... everything was looked at with a judicious eye. And before we knew it, we had sunk probably ten times more hours into this project than if we had made pinup specials on Wednesdays instead. O.o

I know MMM:RE is not totally NEW, and new art is always best, but MMM is a classic comic that was dear to many. And for some, this is the first time reading it. We wanted to release it on our website in a form that reflected our best possible effort, and we have strived to do so. Hopefully the community found this remastering project worthy. We'd love to hear your thoughts on the forum HERE, good or bad.

And to all our readers in the States, we wish you a Happy Thanksgiving tomorrow! :D

UPDATE: We've hit our fourth Milestone Goal! There will be at least five RHB updates in 2016 each and every week. No more sketch updates, no more preview art crap, NEW art every weekday, guaranteed!

Our Donation Drive total stands at $12395. Now comes the hard part. We want to party like it's 2010. The next milestone goal is the return of Saturdays- SIX UPDATES per week! Three comic pages, and three pinups just like the Golden Age of the RHB!

It's a tall challenge, it may SEEM impossible. But it is within our power. Guys like Zanthador64 have stepped up, as he's recently hit the 5k donation total and become the FIRST RHB LEGEND! But we need others to help big too.

Even if you choose not to go for the Lifetime membership, the donation proceeds will still be used to make more Ranma hentai so that no matter what, your donation will absolutely not be wasted! :D

BIG ANNOUNCEMENT : With just a little over a month to go before the Donation Drive ends, we're making a Last Chance Power Drive to reach our ultimate goal of 6 art updates every week in 2016!

To help entice our community to lend more support, we've introduced a new reward tier. For all members who donate 1000 USD total by December 15th (the end of the Donation Drive), you will be entered into the Lifetime RHB Membership Christmas Raffle!

There will be only one Lifetime RHB subscription up for grabs. Your odds of winning depend on how many community members reach this donation milestone. The chances could be really good if few do, and should you win you'll save $4k USD on a Lifetime Membership! O.o

And should you lose the Raffle, you'll still get an exclusive holiday art update as our thanks for participating. ^_^

Better still, your donated 1k can STILL be used to purchase a Lifetime Membership. For all who have donated at least 1k by December 15th, you will have until December 31st, 2016 to pay the remaining 4k USD and grab the Lifetime Membership.

So this is it, gang, we're trying our damndest to reach the 25,000 Donation total and ensure there will be SIX NEW ART UPDATES EACH WEEK in 2016. Will you help us make that happen?

There will be only one Lifetime RHB subscription up for grabs. Your odds of winning depend on how many community members reach this donation milestone. The chances could be really good if few do, and should you win you'll save $4k USD on a Lifetime Membership! O.o

And should you lose the Raffle, you'll still get an exclusive holiday art update as our thanks for participating. ^_^

Better still, your donated 1k can STILL be used to purchase a Lifetime Membership. For all who have donated at least 1k by December 15th, you will have until December 31st, 2016 to pay the remaining 4k USD and grab the Lifetime Membership.

So this is it, gang, we're trying our damndest to reach the 25,000 Donation total and ensure there will be SIX NEW ART UPDATES EACH WEEK in 2016. Will you help us make that happen?

Please consider visiting the Donation Drive Page and making a donation to get us to our next Milestone Goal a little faster. Thanks to everyone who gives and plans to give!

Naughty Bits is taking a hiatus while we prep the next batch of sexy shorties. In the meanwhile, we'll be releasing a classic comic on Wednesdays- Midnight Movie Mayhem: Remastered Edition!

This remastered comic will feature larger resolution art, some replaced/enhanced art, repairs where appropriate (removing smudges and debris we may have missed upon original release, among other art defects), and even some dialog improvements (though nothing quite as extensive as the Definitive Edition of Queen of the Night, which was a unique case).

I've said this before, but it's nevertheless true. With great remastering comes great time investment. That's why we're breaking up the release of MMM: Remastered Edition into more manageable chunks, about ten pages each week. Still a pretty beastly goal given all the other art we have in production, but one we can handle. X_X

In today's update, we have the first part of our remastered Midnight Movie Mayhem comic. Look for the remaining parts to be released on Wednesdays this month!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

UPDATE: The Donation Drive has reached $6390! Which means not only is The Hentai Zone 2: Redux funded, but now so too is The Hentai Zone 4 starring Ranma-chan! We promise that The Hentai Zone 4 will begin release by the end of 2016, perhaps considerably earlier since we met this Milestone Goal so quickly! And to think, we reached it in just 9 days! The support of the community has truly been amazing! O.O

I'd like to give a special shout out to Zanthador64, who gave over 2k yesterday and took the first giant step towards becoming an RHB legend (and claiming the lifetime membership which comes with it!). Thank you, LittleZ, it's members like you who affirm our faith that Ranma will continue for many years to come. ^_^

With The Hentai Zone funding now in the rearview mirror, we turn our gaze towards our next Milestone Goal- guaranteeing new updates every weekday in 2016. If we can meet this goal, there will be no more sketches, no more art previews in 2016 (like today's update, sorry! X_X). There will be at least 5 brand new and complete art updates each and every week!

Making that happen won't be easy. The Donation Drive needs to hit 12k, but we're already halfway there. And if our community continues to give steadily, it's not a matter of IF we reach it, only WHEN!

If you haven't already, please consider visiting the Donation Drive Page and making a donation to get us there a little faster. Thanks to everyone who gives and plans to give!

Site News 08.24.2015 - 08.28.2015

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Reminder: As noted in the Calendar of Events, all regularly scheduled Ranma art- including Queen of the Grill, Naughty Bits, and Fan Requests- will be on temporary hiatus this week (normal art schedule resumes August 31st). Sorry gang, but we have a very good reason for this: we've released our FIRST RHB FLASH ANIMATION STARRING SHAMPOO!!!

Featuring key art based on Purple-13, this animation is a short demo to help give the RHB a taste of what is possible. But we need the community's help to make the possible a reality! We're holding an RHB Donation Drive with the goal of funding new and/or stalled RHB content.

There will be exclusive art rewards available, as well as milestone goals to help us fund projects like our poor stuck in limbo Hentai Zone 2 Redux comic, a SECOND FLASH ANIMATION starring Nabiki (featuring 100 percent new art) which could be released this week if the donation drive can meet one of its milestone goals quickly, EVEN the return of SIX UPDATES PER WEEK FOR 2016 is on the table!!!

For more information, please visit the DONATION DRIVE PAGE!

Now let's get into the details of our Shampoo Animation: Kitty Kitty Bang Bang!

Core game features include:

-Music (can be turned off)

-Sound FX (can be turned off)

-Replay option (game repeats the loop minus the copyright page).

-A button to advance the game (featuring Genma holding a sign no less!), located in the bottom right corner.

-"FAST" and "SLOW" speed settings for sex loops were omitted, but can be found in the JusticeHentai Wonder Woman Vs. Ares Flash Game which was released earlier in the month. These features may be included in future RHB animations depending upon community feedback.

This was our first Flash Game, so we look at Kitty Kitty Bang Bang as our Shakedown Cruise. Our Perils of Fighting Dirty, if you will. We learned a lot while making it and the quality you see here will only go up in our future efforts.

And we do hope that there will be future efforts. Imagine RHB community members having the ability to request a short animation loop of their favorite RHB request or pinup! Or an animation scene featuring original art! Perhaps even a full-length Ranma hentai episode (expensive, but we're not limiting our ambitions)! The more our community supports these projects, the more elaborate we can make them!

So if you're excited by the game, and see the potential in us making future games, please consider donating using your RHB aMember account. A donation banner can be found on the front page of the public website, or you can follow this link: DONATE HERE. We strongly suggest you visit the DONATION DRIVE PAGE first though so you can see the rewards for donation amounts, as well as the milestone goals for the Donation Drive.

Thanks for reading this wall of text, and if you have any questions please chime in on the forums or send us an email. Replies might be slow (busy day), but we'll get back to you ASAP.

Check back Monday for full details on the animation game and the RHB Donation Drive. It'll take a lot to make it all happen, but we're putting everything on the table and putting our future in the hands of our community!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

In today's update, we have the last part of our remastered Queen of the Night comic.

Collapse

When we took on the challenge of remastering this comic, even our best guess fell short of how complicated and involved it was going to be. The book has a higher resolution, background fixes, art fixes, and pretty much a brand new script- one that that we're very proud of and that we hope you enjoyed.

I realize that it may not be obvious, but just the process of creating new background renders, inserting new dialog balloons on every panel of every page, all of that takes hours upon hours by itself, never mind how long it took us to write the Definitive Edition script- a script which we continued to fine tune literally until minutes before release. Every word, every thought that was on page we wanted to reflect our definitive vision for the story. And we're so happy that we got to share that with our community at long last!

If you feel inclined to do so, please share your thoughts about Queen of the Night Definitive Edition in the feedback thread, we'd truly appreciate it! ^_^

With readers now caught up, it's time to start Queen of the Grill. The long wait is over, look for the first page Friday, June 12th! ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

In today's update, we have the fifth part of our remastered Queen of the Night comic. Here begins the second half of the comic.

As some have noticed, we're running behind, with over two dozen pages left to post. This is due to the days we lost last week when payment processing was unexpectedly down. Though it's restored, and despite working hard all weekend, we haven't been able to make up all the lost time. =(

For this reason, and because we want to make sure that Queen of the Night DE is read in its entirety before Queen of the Grill starts, we're reluctantly pushing back the first page of QotG until Friday, June 12th (We'd have released it Monday, but that's already reserved for the last page of Sweet Oblivious). Very sorry about this, but please be assured that no matter what happens between now and then, Queen of the Grill page 1 will be released on June 12th without fail. QotG will then take over the Monday/Friday release slots going forward. ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

As we announced last week, Queen of the Grill is making its big debut June 5th and takes place in the Queen of the Night universe. But what if you've never read those books or want to reread them before QotG starts?

We hear you, and so over the next three weeks we'll be releasing a remastered and enhanced version of Queen of the Night! It'll feature larger resolution art, major dialog improvements that restore previously cut or unrealized text content, and even revamped backgrounds for key art. In short, it's the DEFINITIVE version of Queen of the Night that we encourage everyone to read!

With great remastering comes great time investment. We've already put in a lot of work up to this point, but Queen of the Night is a 69 page comic- a beastly length which we could not hope to remaster and post all in one go. That's why we're breaking it up into a more manageable six update chunks. Still a pretty beastly goal given all the other art we have in production, but one we can handle. X_X

In today's update, we have the first part of our remastered Queen of the Night comic. Look for the remaining parts to be released over the next three weeks, completing its run on June 4th!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

NOTE: Sweet Oblivious will be running Mondays for the remainder of May (as noted on the RHB calendar). Fridays is reserved for other comic content, some of which we'll be talking about right now!

In today's update, we share the cover for our next showcase comic: Queen of the Grill.

This is our first showcase book which primarily focuses on Ranma and Ukyo's relationship. As the title suggests, the comic takes place in the Queen of the Night universe, a two-part story we released on Deep Star Books back in 2008. While Queen of the Grill won't pick up immediately after the conclusion of Queen of the Night, it will be set some considerable length of time after the events of the previous books.

Like all our comics though, you don't need to have read QotN to enjoy QotG, but you will get more out of it if you do! ^_-

This cover is just a taste of things to come. QotG production is still ongoing, as our artists diligently tackle the challenges we've put before them for this tale. But we wanted to share the cover today to help build anticipation for QotG's big debut, which I can now announce will take place on June 5th. The wait shall be worth it! ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

NOTE: Today's page marks the return of the showcase team for the final pages of the comic! :D

There was some confusion over whether SO Page 09 was the last page of the comic- it isn't. SO-09 was, however, the last page of the current art style, and for that reason we wanted to separate and distinguish the back pages (which are in full Showcase Comic quality) by making each section its own short, related story. The thinking was this would make the transition less confusing, but I fear we probably achieved the opposite.

My previous blurb on Friday was meant to address possible disappointment that the Omake content would not be what some people were hoping to see (Akane interested more in Ranma's girl-side than boy-side), but I worry that somehow the interpretation was there would be no Omake content at all and the story was over. Apologies for the confusion, we're not ending things with a frickin' bulldozer! X_X

Let's just make this simple. The comic will continue for a little while longer- and it will now be full showcase quality!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

Sweet Oblivious Page 09 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, Akane and Ranma discover the source of that noise- and it's a jaw dropper! O.O

This concludes the main story of Sweet Oblivious, but the comic continues with another Akane/Ranma shortie (very short, Omake type length) which will start Monday.

I want to take some time to address concerns raised to me by a small, but extremely passionate portion of our community. The issue is mini-comics and where they may be coming up short (sorry for the pun, but if you've been reading our stuff for years, you're used to it by now ^_-).

Much like The Moe Idol, some readers seem surprised when mini-comics end with perhaps so much more unrealized potential. I understand the need for instant gratification, particularly on a website about hentai, but it's difficult for us to make adjustments on the fly when the audience reaction catches us off-guard. I want to assure readers that we study feedback and that we DO make adjustments, but only ones that are possible during the active release of a comic, which often amounts to a few panels or an extra page since art is very expensive and time consuming to make at the level of quality we set for ourselves. Those efforts usually become short Omake at the end of the comic and can serve as the team's way of saying "we were listening to your feedback and we hope you enjoy this".

In the case where The Moe Idol's Momiji generated more interest than we expected, there was no time to add another act where she was an active participant instead of the off-screen "antagonist" (at least Ranma seemed to think so =P). We DID make some Omakes that focused more on her, and this was our way or trying to give readers content they appeared to be interested in, among other Omake topics which were explored like Ranma's choice of campaign bribes.

I realize that some of those Omakes are going to fall short of the expectations of our readers. If you wanted a deep story with that character, a pairing, or maybe a fetish, then an Omake is unlikely to fully satisfy. But don't lose heart. Even if we don't explore a track that the audience clamored for in the depth you wished, that doesn't mean it will never happen. If there was a concept we teased, like Akane being more interested in Ranma's girl-side than boy-side, and that concept catches on with our readers, we note that and plan another mini or full comic which focuses on that, a comic that will be carefully planned out and executed to the best of our abilities.

We could try instead to adjust to fan feedback on the fly, and rush out something to appease readers, but more often than not the results aren't what the readers or our team hoped for. Which is why you'll see us continue to give these "winks" with Omakes, and possibly revisit concepts that caught on during a comic at a later date when we're ready to present something that the team will be proud to share.

So to sum things up, mini-comics are minis that won't have the complex plots our readers have come to expect from books like Summer Moon and I Dream of Ranma-chan. They do however allow us more flexibility to change the direction of our content based on community feedback, shortening a process that might take years into months. So if you've arrived at the end of Sweet Oblivious, and you want future stories about Ranma and Akane to go in a particular direction, please voice that to us on the forums or through email. If we see a strong consensus, we'll try to make that happen, our muse willing. And if you DON'T want any Ranma + Akane content for another long while, let us know that too and we'll try to focus on other characters (like Ranma + Ukyo, which is the subject of our next book!).

Are we not pandering enough? Pandering too much? Maybe, but I choose to look at the consensus of audience feedback not as a missed opportunity, but a future opportunity. So please keep sharing your feedback, and we'll keep trying to give you the content our community wants to see. Thanks for reading!

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

With our next Showcase Comic still deep in production, the RHB team has decided to move up a short mini-comic titled "Sweet Oblivious". This mini was originally intended to run as a Naughty Bits special in early June, but we are releasing it early.

The good news is that moving up this mini-comic means there will be not one but TWO comic updates each week (Monday and Friday) for the rest of the month. And no line art previews either, it will be a full color page each time!

The bad news is Naughty Bits updates will cease for the month of April (and will return in May), which will allow our artists extra time to focus their energies on our big Ukyo/Ranma book planned for this Spring. Sadly that project is not going to be released in April as we first hoped, but we do feel the odds are very high it will debut in May.

Wednesday updates will either feature a new Fan Request or a Special if no Request is available for posting. With the Showcase team swamped, it's probable that these updates will come from old friends of the RHB.

One thing that should be noted about Sweet Oblivious is that the Showcase team did not color this mini-comic because their hands are full, but nevertheless the quality is quite good and the style has a cute manga feel which may prove a refreshing change. Please chime in on the forum with your opinions about the alternative color style. Now onto the new book!

Please be sure to thank "GojanT", whose generous and steadfast support made skipping the preview update possible today. You rock my friend!

Sadly this doesn't mean we won't be doing preview NB pages in the future. These types of updates remain necessary for the time being to help keep comic production quality high. But when it's possible, we'll try to bypass them. Thanks for understanding. ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

NOTE: The team is hard at work on the next comic, which we want to start as soon as possible. This has been hampered by a score of unforeseen challenges which I won't hash out here. All I'll say for now is that we're behind schedule and realize that working double digit hour days and weekends won't be enough to catch up. We need more production time and it has to come from somewhere on the art schedule. =(

It COULD mean taking time away from Naughty Bits, our other comic project, but this is something we loathe to do, especially when a Showcase Comic is not in active release. Nor are we willing to sacrifice the Fan Requests of RHB members who have already waited long enough to see their ideas illustrated as RHB pinups. This left us only one recourse...

After much discussion, we have determined we're going to just barely be able to keep up our every other week Naughty Bits release schedule if we make one sacrifice- Wednesday pinup Specials. It always sucks having to drop art from the schedule, but of all the things we could put on hold for awhile, Specials seemed the least inflammatory option available to us.

There are a handful of pinup specials that were previously produced and we'll be releasing those within the next two weeks. After that, there won't be any new RHB pinup Specials for at least two months while we focus on production of the next Showcase comic.

Don't worry, even though we're putting RHB pinup Specials on hold for awhile, there will still be an art update every Wednesday. In place of those Specials, we'll be releasing previews of upcoming Naughty Bits art (similar to what we did with Ranma-chan in the gymnastics leotard last month). The release schedule will be:

Wednesday of Week 1: Preview of Week 2's Naughty Bits Comic page.

Wednesday of Week 2: Naughty Bits Comic Page

Wednesday of Week 3. Preview of Week 4's Naughty Bits Comic page.

And so on.

Sometimes these Wednesday preview updates will only be line art panels, sometimes these will be full color previews, but we'll always update something NEW (and hopefully interesting). Most importantly, the release of full color Naughty Bits art every other week will not be affected. And all completed comic pages will be Showcase quality. ^_^

With this difficult subject now addressed, let's turn our attention to the first of these Naughty Bits preview updates.

In today's update, we're calling an audible. The special originally planned for today has been put on hold and will be completed and posted January 28th (note that the Naughty Bits page planned for the 21st will not be affected).

The reason for this delay is because of feedback we received regarding our Xmas mini-comic. A significant number of readers requested large, isolated art of key moments in the comic. This required our team to go back to the original art and rework it to be displayed at a larger resolution.

Though we would have liked to have posted both this art and the new special together, there was not enough time to complete both. As way of apology, we'll include a bonus variant version of the delayed special. ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

With the conclusion of Ranma and Ryoga's big sex scene, they and SWW will take a brief break so that we can announce our next showcase comic. Look for SWW to return Monday. ^_^

Although we chose not to present an Olympics themed pinup special for the Sochi Games (one pinup series dedicated to the Winter and Summer Olympics seemed like enough. We felt that the format had run its course on the subject), we've upped our game this go around by creating our first Olympic themed narrative comic!

The Platinum Pair Cover Page is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

Ranma Saotome laces up his skates one more time to team with Azusa, forming the most lethal tandem the sport has ever seen: The Platinum Pair! Whether they are a bigger threat to their competition or to themselves has yet to be seen! =P

We realize Azusa is not exactly an A-lister when it comes to the Ranma cast, but we're hoping our community will indulge us. Not only is this Azusa's first Showcase Comic, but the Odd Couple pairing leads to some of the funniest situations we've ever done, which is really saying something! And for those worried about not seeing their favorite Ranma babe, take heart! Some other gals will pop up in the course of the story. Additionally, Naughty Bits will be running a bunch alongside TPP, so there will be plenty of variety in our comic pages in the coming months.

That's all for now concerning TPP, but enjoy the cover and expect more details about this story once SWW wraps up! :D

Notice: After reflecting on the feedback provided, and a full weekend of toil (who needs rest on Sunday?), I'm pleased to report that we have a brand spanking new menu!

List of changes:

A pure CSS menu that isn't icon based for faster loading. Less padding/waste around the buttons. Large enough for the tablet, small enough for reasonable desktop presentation. A slightly adjusted color scheme. Buttons will now highlight when the mouse cursor hovers over one. A drop down box for the "Links" button allowing faster navigation to our sister websites. Desktop only, for now. Upcoming changes:

Warp menu with a drop down box. I'm still trying to figure out how to do the box scrolling without using javascript, which would cause other issues. But it's coming! Thanks for everyone's continued patience! The Scout, the Witch, and the Warrior Page 25 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

NOTICE: WEBSITE UPGRADES!

Here's a list of things that were changed:

We have a new logo to replace the antiquated original. The galleries page has been redesigned to feature larger, easy to press buttons for our tablet readers. It's also nice that you can read the titles of the books, the old ones were way too small! The Specials gallery is now accessible in the same area as the rest of the galleries. The Warp to a Comic menu has been removed as it has ceased functioning with some browsers. It may return at a later date. The button menu has been overhauled to make tablet and mobile viewing easier. The affiliated website links have been moved from individual listings on the menu to their own content page, accessible by pressing "Links" on the far right side of the menu. The background color is slightly warmer. The gray content box outset has been replaced by a ridge framing pattern. Improvements to the public website shall follow later in the week. Fan Requests Pages 731, 732 & 733 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's request pinup, middle-aged couple Genma and Nodoka find a clever way to have another child!

And as a bonus, a non-preggers version of the page has also been included.

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books and Happy New Year!

There was some discussion about how we were going to execute today's art page. Would it be a pinup special, would it be a Naughty Bits page, and ultimately we decided it was better to make it as a special with a spoooge-tastic variant instead of bloating it into several panels needlessly for the sake of placing it in the NB gallery. With that said, let's take a look at the art! ^_^

Welcome back to Ranma Hentai Books!

The Scout, the Witch, and the Warrior Page 10 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, Scout Ranko and Warrior Porkman break character during their roleplaying session to discuss Akane's recent words.

Announcement: Based on feedback from previous years, we know how much the RHB community enjoys our holiday specials, but we also know how much they miss our comics during this time of year. So for the past several months the RHB team has been working harder than ever (I lost track of how many Sundays were sacrificed for this cause, but a lot) to prepare enough showcase comic pages in advance so that SWW will NOT have to go on hiatus for the holidays like our comics have in previous years. Instead, we will release a new SWW page each Friday! (Mondays will still be a holiday pinup special like last year.)

Additionally, it's hoped that we can run Naughty Bits on Wednesdays starting December 25th, but this is not set in stone. Worst case, NB will return on New Year's Day. We'll do our best. O.O

So while SWW updates will effectively be cut in half for a few weeks, our goal is to still release 2 new showcase comic pages each week through the holidays. It's a daunting feat what with so many members of the team visiting family or on vacation, but there's a good chance it will be achieved. ^_^

If you haven't done so already, please consult the Calendar of Events for an idea of our update schedule. And for those of you who won't be with us due to your own festivities, the RHB team wishes you a happy holiday! ^_^

In today's update, Ranma and Akane make a high stakes bet! But their fate won't be in their own hands, the outcome will be decided by a special "expert" judge!

The RHB team hopes that you've enjoyed the recent boost in art quality for Naughty Bits! It's our intention that all future Naughty Bits pages maintain this quality, but as was explained several weeks ago, in order to meet that standard Naughty Bits needs to have periodic breaks to give our artists the necessary time to do these pages right. We've sadly come to our next Naughty Bits rest point, but look for the series to return next month in time for Christmas (An RHB Special or Fan Request shall replace NB on Wednesdays during the hiatus). And for those craving comic pages sooner, don't forget that our next Showcase Comic "The Scout, the Witch, and the Warrior" begins Monday!

It's time to announce our next Showcase Comic: The Scout, the Witch, and the Warrior!

The Scout, the Witch, and the Warrior Cover is now available for your viewing enjoyment! And from the looks of it, this book appears to be well timed for Halloween! ^_^

As mentioned on Friday, Showcase Comics are going on hiatus for the next few weeks, both to give the team a much needed rest after our record length comic Summer Moon, and to allow us to run some specials and a Fan Request Mania event. But don't worry, comic fans, Naughty Bits will be running unaffected and our next Showcase Book will be kicking off in November and run throughout the holidays!

In today's update, after a long journey spanning more than a year, we've at last come to the end of Summer Moon! The RHB team would like to thank everyone for their patience and support throughout the most epic comic we've ever produced! But chances are, we'll not be making any more monsters like this! Look for future stories to be under a much more reasonable 50 page cap limit going forward to allow for a rotation of more stories each year.

If you haven't done so already, the RHB team would love to have you review this comic on the forums. Please VISIT THE FEEDBACK THREAD and share your thoughts if you have some free time this weekend!
:D

Looking forward to next week, we'll be releasing the cover to our next Showcase Comic! We'll also finish up our current Naughty Bits Mini Story and we even have a Halloween update in store! Additionally, since we haven't done one for awhile and the team could use a small break after the record length production of Summer Moon, we'll be starting a Fan Request Mania event as well! Site News 09.11.2013

Welcome back, Defenders!

I know a lot has happened the last couple days so I am going to do my best to clarify some stuff in today's blurb!

Firstly, because of the delay in posting Fan Requests due to the website upgrades and the recent Verotelpocalypse, we are once again posting links to yesterday's request art below for those who missed out Tuesday.

Secondly, I have been informed by Verotel that ALL RHB member accounts have been canceled. They will NOT renew. Additionally, the RHB Verotel account is now closed and no longer authorized to accept Verotel transactions. This account was closed around Noon EST at our request and will remain closed. So from now on, please make all future subscription payments using the new RHB aMember system. (JusticeHentai and Enchanted Hentai remain unaffected and will continue using the Verotel service for the time being).

All RHB Defender account data has already been transferred over including everyone's remaining Defender subscription time. No need to sign back up, just login with your Verotel usercode & passcode and you're all set. ^_^

Thirdly, some of you who attempted to cancel your Verotel account today may have received the message "account not authorized". If you saw this, it's because your account and the RHB Verotel account were already closed. There's nothing you need to do and all Verotel accounts have already been canceled. But thank you to everyone who made that effort. I didn't know the exact time Verotel would cancel memberships and wanted to keep accidental recurring billing to a minimum because it would just be yet more records I had to manually update in aMember. Thankfully, it only took a couple days for Verotel to complete our cancellation request. Could have been worse. X_X

Fourthly, some of you who have bought Paladin or Champion subscriptions have expressed interest in adding the time you had left on your Verotel Defender subscriptions to your Paladin or Champion tier subscription. I want to assure everyone that you can 100 percent do that. All you need do is email me using the "contact us" link on the nav bar to your left. In the subject header of the email, please write "Upgrade My Verotel Defender subscription to Paladin (or Champion) subscription". You will then be asked to pay a small surcharge fee, the price being the difference between the cost of the two tiers for each month remaining on your old Verotel Defender subscription. Once that's taken care of, I will manually extend the length of your Paladin or Champion subscription accordingly.

Some of you might not want to bother upgrading your old Verotel subscription time, and that's fine too. You'll receive Defender access for each day remaining on the last Verotel Defender subscription you purchased. If want to renew your Defender tier subscription, you can do that by logging into your account, which will always exist regardless of whether your subscription remains active or not.

Lastly, I know that moving everyone's account from Verotel to the RHB aMember system is going to annoy some, despite our best efforts to make it as painless a process as we could. And having to pay a small surcharge if you want to upgrade your old Verotel Defender subscription to Paladin or Champion status might chafe a bit, but is necessary to cover the cost of Premium Fan Requests. For those reasons, and to thank people for sticking with us through thick and thin, we have offered a special $20 coupon that can be used to purchase a Paladin or Champion subscription of any length. It's our way of saying sorry for the hassle.

Now if you haven't done so already, please read the Verotelpocalypse FAQ. Just ignore that part about canceling your Verotel membership, that's no longer necessary. At the bottom of the FAQ is the coupon code for upgrading your subscription. ^_^

Time for some art!

Welcome back Defenders!

First off, there is no new Naughty Bits update today. =(

The art team working on it needs more time to get it just right, so we're releasing a Fan Request in its place. Hopefully Naughty Bits will be back on track without further interruption next Wednesday. Sorry for the wait, but we'll try to make sure that it's worth it!

In other big news, the updates for the rest of the week (Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday) are being posted together today in one massive update because I am going on a hiking trip and will be without internet access. Updates will resume their normal release schedule next week!

This is my first real vacation in two years so I am understandably stoked! As mentioned previously, I will be without internet access through most of the trip, so any questions and feedback should be directed towards SHADE and LurkerFromBelow for the rest of the week. You can email them using the info on the ABOUT US page, or you can send them a private message on the forum.

The RHB team has resisted doing a 4th of July pinup for the last four years for one simple reason- Ranma is Japanese. If the Ranma gang was to do anything patriotic, it would be with the Japanese flag and for the Japanese holidays, right? That's why you see Akane draped with the Japanese Flag in Babes of Glory. In those rare cases patriotism comes up, we try to make it true to the characters.

However, we realize that half our community lives in the United States. And we have repeatedly received requests to do a 4th of July Ranma special. For this reason, and for these readers, we have decided to check logic at the door for the day and give these people what they want- some sexy 4th of July Ranma fun!

Those of you who think the way the team does, the ones that believe that maybe Ranma-chan and American patriotism are a poor fit, the RHB team requests that you please indulge those readers. We don't plan to make this an annual tradition, but we did feel that we should offer something for them to enjoy. Thank you for understanding!

Now let's see what all the fuss is about, shall we?

NOTICE: Today's update is part one of a two-part Naughty Bits story. We've been hesitant to extend Naughty Bits beyond a single, self contained page, but now that we have some steam built up and confidence, we're going to see if longer Naughty Bits stories are practical. This does not mean that next month we will start a 20 page NB story, but we are aiming to try out 2-4 page length stories and see if we can maintain our current production pace. If all goes well, we should be able to create a mix of standalone NB updates and, on occasion, a few multi-page Naughty Bits stories too.

The RHB team would also like to thank the community for all the comments we've received about NB on the forum and through email. Your feedback has helped our team get to this point that much quicker, a place where we feel bold enough to expand NB production. Please keep that feedback coming and we'll keep trying to raise the ceiling on NB production! ^_^

Welcome back, Defenders!

We're starting a brand new comic today unlike any we've done before! Up until this point, most of our comics have been long stories that take in some cases years to finish. This hasn't allowed us to be as flexible as we'd prefer. For example, if we notice a groundswell of interest in a Hinako comic we're very limited by our long production cycles. Even if we began that day on a project featuring Hinako, the book would take many months if not a year plus to complete, and by then who knows if anybody is even interested anymore? Maybe people want to see another girl by that point.

We tried to address the limitation of our long production cycles with Mini-Comics, but our results were decidedly mixed. Telling stories through stand alone pinups resulted in a pinup pace that was agonizingly slow. And when we tried to do a full length comic page format (with 3-5 panels per page) with the resources we had, we found that we lacked the time and money to create new art for each page, sometimes forcing us to recycle or retool previous art to replace less essential panels. In other words, we had to use some stock art to fill in the gaps, which left the team frustrated about the compromises we were forced to make to get the comic out on time.

Despite these setbacks, the team continued to search for new ways to get a third comic page made for the RHB each week. While we don't have anywhere near the resources to do a third showcase comic page (sorry, we'd all love and prefer that, but that's not possible at the moment), we might be able to pull off another comic page with some format and style changes. And this realization led to the comic that became Naughty Bits!

Naughty Bits is our new comic series that will feature a collection of one-off Ranma stories. Sometimes Naughty Bits ideas will take the form of a story that will span a few pages, but most of the time each page will be a standalone story unto itself. Any Ranma girl can be featured. And all pages should seldom (if we have our way, NEVER) feature stock art.

For those of you wondering about continuity, Naughty Bits will continue to use the loose continuity featured in most of our comics. A Naughty Bits page might refer to a previous comic like Sister's Night

Off, a Fan Request, a Special, canon Ranma manga or anime stories, break the 4th wall, or be self-referential (talking about an earlier Naughty Bits page). Anything is on the table, but different pages could have conflicting histories, so I recommend treating each one-off story as its own separate continuity that may refer to previous work, but does not redefine it.

The Naughty Bits format has a few advantages. The production time for a typical Naughty Bits page will only be 4-6 weeks (and perhaps faster in some cases). A quicker turnaround time will mean that our comic pages can address feedback we receive on the forum. It will also allow our humor to be more topical so you could see humor reflecting current events. Most importantly, it will allow us to tell small stories with Ranma girls our community wants to see soon without making them wait a year or more.

There are, however, some drawbacks too. As I've explained before, we don't have the resources to release a third showcase comic page each week so Naughty Bits won't look like say, Summer Moon. And we also need the flexibility to be a little more stylized to ensure that we don't fall back on stock art to fill in some panels when production lags. So the art style of Naughty Bits will be lower detailed, but very expressive. Although I wouldn't go as far to call it super deformed, it will be simpler and put more emphasis on being cute. Please keep art expectations realistic for what we can achieve in this new format.

Naughty Bits may not appear every week if we lack the resources, but our goal is to try to make a new Naughty Bits page whenever we can. During a week we fall short, we'll release a Fan Request or Special instead.

Lastly, since Naughty Bits is just getting started, I'm sure that the format will be tweaked and the art quality will only get better over time. We've prepared a limited set of five pages for our first run, and then we will pause production a moment, collect feedback, and evaluate whether our latest attempt to get more comic content on the website is on the right path. Please remember that Naughty Bits is a work in progress, but we hope with your feedback it can develop into a regular staple of the RHB. :D

Now without further ado, let's talk about the new art page!

Naughty Bits Cover Page is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

The cover features a variety of girls and you can expect the same from each comic page. Any girl from the Ranmaverse might appear and anything goes (just the way Ranma likes it)! So let us know on the forum who you want to see most and they may just pop up in a future comic page!

Oh, and I must give credit where credit is due, special thanks to artist Kevin Kartsens for the title of our new comic series. He won't be drawing art for the project as he's working over at Enchanted Hentai, but he named the book so he's forever put his own stamp on it. ^_^

Welcome back Defenders!

I'm pleased to inform everyone that we have a new artist drawing for the RHB! Although he's only been working with us the past couple months, I think you'll agree after viewing his first pinup today that he's picked up the Ranma character designs quite well! If you visit the forum, please take a moment to post your impressions for his benefit. Thanks!

In today's pinups, the Ranma gals decorate the tree!

And as an added bonus, SHADE has drawn and colored a serene image of Akane and Ranma to bring our holiday updates to a close! I can't stress enough how big Shade's contribution was this past week. He put in a ton of hours to help get us back on track and ensure that we had enough art for all our updates. Please give him some props on the forums for all his hard work!

Although the team managed to avoid missing any updates, we admit our recent content has been rather thin. It was not our intention to stretch out holiday updates this far, but we had no choice but to make the best of a bad situation. We apologize for this and please know that we appreciate everyone's patience and understanding during what an extremely difficult period for us.

Now I'm happy to report that things will begin to return to normal! Fan Requests start up again tomorrow (the 8th) and Summer Moon should be back January 21st. In the meantime, regular (non-holiday) Specials or Fan Requests will occupy Monday and Wednesday slots.

UPDATE: The forums are back online! Unfortunately, we needed to reboot it using our backup files from December 16th. All posts between then and December 29th have been erased. But luckily, most of the posts made between then and now have been located. While I can't restore the physical posts, I was able to quote the text from the missing posts in the appropriate threads. Sorry about the inconvenience this outage has caused and please know we'll be looking into ways to improve the forum going forward.

It had been our intention to announce the date Summer Moon would return today. However, in light of the delays caused by the forum outage and the extra strain it put on the team, that plan is now out the window. We're now more worried about ensuring we have enough art updates ready for release in January, regardless of what kind of updates they may be. There is a very real possibility that we may, for the first time in the history of our website, miss an update or two this month. We're very sorry about this and please know that the team will continue to work towards avoiding this at all costs and bringing back Summer Moon as soon as possible.

At least for this week, specials will be featured in every update. While Fan Requests won't be ready for this week, we remain hopeful that we can get those going again by January 8th.

This is an extraordinarily difficult situation, so we're humbly asking for everyone's patience while we do everything we can on our end to get things back on track.

In today's update, Genma concocts a plan to sweep his wife Nodoka off her feet!

Special thanks to RHB team member Hinoron for contributing the idea for this pinup (and the previous week's pinup to boot!). And for the curious, the inspiration for this page was based on a scene from the blooper reel of the television show Enterprise.

I had previously stated that the pinup was based off this image featuring rocker Bret Michaels, but as it turns out that was only a visual aid used to explain this pinup concept to the artist. While the pirate image was ultimately instrumental in the creation of Genma's pose, it was not the inspiration for the concept behind it. Sorry for the confusion, Hinoron!

SUPER IMPORTANT NEWS: Our forum host admin, Bradster, has informed us that there is a serious problem which has required the forum to be reinstalled from scratch. The forum may be unavailable the next day or two as a result. Worse, the installation will use backup files from our most recent backup, this past Sunday, so all forum posts between then and now have been lost. A crushing blow, and I am very sorry to anyone who lost an important post, like a turn-based fan request. I encourage everyone to please re-post any important information when the forum comes back up and apologize on behalf of the team for this unexpected downtime and the inconvenience of it.. These outages are rare, but I know they are super annoying. We'll do all we can to ensure the forums are back online as soon as possible. =(

Our manga readers may recall that Asuka was originally unimpressed with the Wild Horse's appearance, but Kodachi and Akane helped Ranma with some grooming (he cleans up real well). Although seriously, all it would have taken to change Asuka's mind is for the elite martial artist to whip off his shirt and flex. Hear me now and believe me later! =P

SOMEWHAT SPOILERISH NOTE: As I review today's pinup, it strikes me that Kodachi's breasts appear to be a little larger than Ranma-chan's. The Ribbon is wrapped around her breasts, which does compress them a bit and make them appear smaller, but our goal was to make RC's bust slightly bigger than Kodachi's and we didn't quite get that across. Welcome back, Defenders!

Summer Moon Pages 01 and 02 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In a bit of a departure from the typical content blurb, I shall introduce the story of Summer Moon with a song!

Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale

A tale of a fateful trip

That started from a Japanese port

Aboard a rich boy's ship

The star is a half-man, half-girl

The skipper is vain and sure

Eight passengers set sail that day

For a three hour tour, a three hour tour

The weather started getting rough

The rich boy's ship was tossed

If not for the courage of the fearless crew

The Bins Sense would be lost, the Bins Sense would be lost

The ship set ground on the shore of this Uncharted Isle

With Ranma

Akane too

The Rich Boy and his Gold Digger

The Okonomiyaki Chef

The Lost Boy

The Unlucky Duck

The Amazon

And Kasumi

Here on the Uncharted Isle!

So this is the tale of the castaways

They're here for a long, long stay

They'll have to make the best of things

In a sexy, sexy way!

Since some of you have asked for it, here's a link to the original song the blurb is based on!

It's summertime here in the States. For the past couple weeks, the humidity and temperature have been through the roof! I hope wherever you are, dear reader, it's considerably cooler. And if not, then hopefully your house or apartment has air conditioning. -_-

In today's update, Ukyo also seems to be feeling the heat. It's so oppressive, even wearing clothes has become a luxury she can no longer afford. Desperate for relief, Ukyo heads outside to find some way to cool off.

And boy did she ever succeed! Methinks that any lucky peeper who spots our favorite okonomiyaki chef outside would spontaneously combust! That's how hot Ukyo can be... and she doesn't even realize it!

This pinup marks the debut of a new artist. For this particular image, he used a water color style giving the pinup a more painterly appearance (The selection of this style should make more sense once you see the page). Although we have no plans to use this type of color regularly, I would very much appreciate any feedback from our readers. Do you like it? Would you want to see this style available for commissions or fan requests? Thanks in advance to everyone that weighs in with their feedback!

The Summer Moon Cover is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

Welcome back, Defenders!

I Dream of Ranma-chan Page 75, 76, 77, & 78 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In our last Omake, a few readers struggled to identify Kuno as Nabiki's genie, primarily because the genie uniform he is wearing hides his distinctive hair. Additionally, it's admittedly not the greatest looking Kuno we've ever made, partly because of rust with the character and partly because it was a small cameo for the character in an Omake (which doesn't provide much time to shake off said rust).

Shade and I took forum feedback to heart and decided to revisit Kuno one more time. Although we can't make sweeping changes to the line art at this late point in production because our art teams have moved onto the new comics coming your way next month, we did adjust Kuno's chin, mouth, and genie outfit color. Should those changes fail to do the trick, we also mention Kuno's name in Nabiki's dialog. We're very sorry about the initial confusion and hope these changes help get the design a little closer to the mark.

Now onto the new Omake!

In today's update, we put the WILD in a Wild West poster that features the "Fastest Draw in the East". Two versions of this pinup were made: one that stuck to the "worn" style of the historical period, and another where the art is more modern. This was hands down my favorite Omake in the set. Hope everyone gets as big a kick out of it as I did!

NOTE: After careful consideration, the RHB team has decided to adjust the dialog for the final panel of page 23. So why are we making the change? Two female students expressed sentiments on that page which conflicted with the dialog of a couple students on page 17. Different Furinkan students have different opinions and reactions to the events of THZ,, such as the rumor and eventual confirmation that Ranma and Akane are engaged. We did not anticipate confusion to result from it, but in hindsight the way we presented those opposing ideas could have been executed better. Ultimately, we weren't that attached to the old page 23 dialog that was causing the issue, so we replaced it with something that hopefully will align with the whole book seamlessly.

We also have some news regarding our upcoming schedule. We have reached the first THZ 2 sex scene and realized that if we updated it every Friday as we have been doing with this comic, it would take nearly two months before the scene was resolved. O.O

Our solution is to delay I Dream of Ranma-chan's return very briefly, only a couple weeks, so that we can allow THZ 2 to use those update slots to complete its sex scene much faster.

Remember, this THZ 2 sex scene features new events that were not in the original version of the comic. I think you will all be very pleased that, unlike the first version, this one does not end so abruptly.

Please note that fan requests will be unaffected by this change and update normally. THZ 2 updates will be on Wednesday, Friday, next Monday, next Wednesday, and next Friday.

Once the THZ 2 sex scene is complete, I Dream of Ranma-chan will resume on March 19th, updating every Monday and Wednesday. THZ 2 will then continue its run on Fridays as usual. More information can be found in the Calendar of Events which can be easily accessed on the nav bar to the left of the screen.

In today's update, Ranma has some big news for Akane! If only Akane would let him share it with her! =P

This mini-comic marks the arrival of a new artist at the RHB! Some of our readers that visit Palcomix V.I.P. may even recognize his style! It's not as polished as our other artists (it takes time to master the character designs), but the art is very expressive and we hope you will enjoy it!

One more thing, please keep in mind that Double Time was originally to be released in late Spring, but was recently moved up. We didn't plan to have two books featuring Ranma having sex with Akane back to back, but it worked out that way because of the extra production time needed to finish IDORC and Summer Moon. Thankfully, Shampoo is also in this comic so we'll be seeing at least one relatively fresh face. Thanks for your patience and understanding!

Defender Specials Page 111, 112 & 113 are now available for your viewing enjoyment!

Today's release is a little out of the norm. We're going to do the Time Warp and revisit production art from some of our earlier comic covers! You'll get a peek at conceptual art and see what might have been!

It's only fitting that we begin with the first comic I worked on, "The Perils of Fighting Dirty". The original cover was similar to the one we finally released with a notable exception- Ranma was on equal ground with Ryoga, striking a dynamic combat stance. The team quickly realized that this might send the wrong message that it was JUST a martial arts comic. I mean, after all, the fun is in seeing Ryoga "have his way with Ranma", right? So the pose was tweaked to show that Ryoga would get the upper hand during their contest. ^_- (Side Note: our worst 3D cock ever. Thankfully, the models got better over time! O.O)

The Perils cover might not have changed too drastically from beginning to end, but the "Herb Breaks Through" cover was another story. Our first version had Herb escaping the manga world by pulling herself out of a book! It was a striking image, and in some ways I kind of wish we had created it, if only as a back cover for the comic. Ultimately, there was concern that Herb might seem like a ghost to the viewer (she would have been completely black and white) so this was put aside for a more colorful version that would not cause unwanted confusion.

The last page we'll look at is the prototype cover for "Rivals". The original concept had Shampoo and Akane locking hands in a test of strength. The background was split down the middle by a jagged line, separating each girl's turf: Shampoo's Cat Cafe and Akane's family dojo.

The prototype cover had a lot of vigor, but was conceptually flawed. The first issue was the fighting. One of the important plot points in Rivals was that Shampoo and Akane would resolve their problems without violence. Showing the girls locked in combat might have created the false impression that there was going to be a nasty throw down. Second, we don't actually visit the Cat Cafe or Tendo Dojo much in the story. Most of the action happens at Furinkan! Awkward. So the final cover was moved to the Furinkan race track, the location of one of the major competitions in the book. It also had the luxury of being a relatively brand new background that hadn't been used very much, so it was our hope it would feel vibrant and fresh to our readers. (Side Note: Creating the 3D models of the Furinkan school grounds took poor Shade many, many months! It was nearly a year before everything was finally finished, but the epic time invested was so worth it in the end!)

Well that will do it for our little stroll down memory lane. It will be interesting to see what you guys have to say about these old production covers. Did we do the right thing in junking them? Do you wish some of them had been used for the covers instead?

Looking forward to next week, we'll be starting a brand new mini-comic that will take over the Monday and Wednesday slots! I can't spill the beans about it yet, but know that things are about to get a little more red, blue, and purple. ^_-

Welcome back, Defenders!

The Hentai Zone 2: Redux Cover is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

As some of our longtime readers might remember, we had intended to do a color version of The Hentai Zone 2 a few years ago. Sadly, sales of the first color special, THZ 1, were poor and the project was scrapped.

About a year later, I personally donated the funding so that the color work for THZ 2 could be completed. Unfortunately, it was around the same time the original Deep Star Books website shut down. The project was once again put on the shelf. =(

We have been looking for a window to release the comic, but there hasn't been a good opportunity until recently. Since our artists have gone on Christmas vacation (well deserved, I might add), we have a void right now in the schedule. No comics are being updated. O.O

Thanks to THZ2: REDUX, we can do something about it. We'll be releasing the comic in the bonus (specials) slot on Defenders (each Friday). If the Christmas pinups aren't enough and you find yourself missing comic updates, maybe this will help tide you over until IDORC returns early next year. ^_^

Although THZ 2: REDUX began life as a simple color project, it ended up being much, much more. All art in the comic was completely redrawn and updated to full showcase comic quality! Plus there will be NEW CONTENT! One of the sex scenes is extended and there's a brand new one too! The final result is something that goes far beyond a simple color version of the comic- it's a whole new way to experience THZ2!

Best of all, once THZ 2: REDUX is complete, we should be ready to roll on the long anticipated continuation of the series, THZ 4! :D

For our English speaking readers, you probably are greeting this update with a shrug. I don't have a pinup for you today (sorry), but a few of you might be curious about my next blurb topic.

Sometimes I get emails asking about whether or not a fan-made Ranma Hentai video exists, and the answer is yes, most definitely. Several in fact. For those Defenders who might not be aware, there are at least three videos circulating. Rather than continue to get emails from our members wondering about where to find them, I will provide links in the hopes people will stop asking. =P

The first one is a scene from "Gekitora 2" between Kasumi and Ranma-kun and can be found HERE.

The second video I am aware of is "The Shower". It involves Ryoga and Ranma-chan engaged in a sex fu battle and can be found HERE.

And lastly, the least known of all the Ranma Hentai videos I have come across is this Kasumi and Ranma-kun video found HERE.

Hope everyone enjoys them. :D

Welcome back, Defenders!

I Dream of Ranma-chan Page 23 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, we learn the identity of Ranma's master!

There are two important things I want to talk about concerning IDORC. First, you'll notice a HUGE art improvement for this comic. It's been promoted to full showcase quality and will update every Monday and Wednesday. Although we are reluctant to change art styles in the middle of a project, we took the opportunity shifting from the "game world" to the "real world" as a reason for the improved visuals. ^_-

Second, this is actually "Part 2" of I Dream of Ranma-Chan and is the beginning of the second and final chapter in this saga. Although IDORC 2 won't run as long as something like Little Horny Demons, expect it to be around for a few months.

Once IDORC is complete, the next comic will be Summer Moon, an ensemble book starring most of the Ranma cast! Look for that this... winter. Sigh, can you tell we're a few months behind schedule? We'll do our best to catch up!

I must make a confession... in quiet moments when I reflect upon all the comics I've written over the years, there's an intriguing potential couple that's glaringly absent- Shampoo and Ryoga. It's one of those pairings that's attractive on the surface, but when you dig into the dynamics of the relationship (or lack thereof), the shape of a worthy plot becomes obscured.

I made Ukyo and Ryoga work in Lost and Found, so why is this one such an obstinate nut to crack? Ah well, I will continue to carry a torch for the concept hoping one day inspiration will strike like lightning. Until then, hopefully today's pinup of the couple will do.

In today's request, Shampoo and Ryoga become friends with benefits! Just because you're not with the one you love, doesn't mean you can't have fun with no strings attached!

...Damn, when I put it like that, why exactly is a Shampoo and Ryoga comic so hard to write again? O.O

In today's request, the Purple Wonder has a date with Ranma and knows the PERFECT dress to wear for the occasion. ^_-

Special thanks to "Forceuser" for a revealing pinup request. We hope you all enjoy it!

NOTE: We have announced the new release schedule in the "Calendar of Events" section. Significant changes have been made that will impact all projects going forward.

Several factors influenced the new schedule. It's no secret that our art costs have been going up since 2008. The dollar's weakness has been keenly felt. We find that our budget doesn't go nearly as far as it once did. We've tried to compensate for that by advertising, hoping it would bring in enough new members to balance the budget. Sadly, membership has stayed fairly flat. Ranma is an aging franchise and it may be likely that we few that still support Ranma hentai are all that remains of its most faithful.

We considered raising the price of membership by a few dollars to make up the money, but we know that many of our members are in the same position that we are in: bills are going up, income is staying the same or going down. Most can't afford higher bills right now anymore than we can. Since raising prices would likely result in losing members, which could result in less overall money for our budget and make it difficult for potential new members to afford trying out our website, we needed to find some other solution.

I wish it was as simple as trimming the "fat" in our budget, but there is no fat to speak of. Only artists are paid for their services, while volunteers like LurkerFromBelow and myself are unpaid. If I had a salary, I'd gladly toss it back in to save us all this grief. =(

Now we are in a terrible situation where we must make an impossible choice. We can either sacrifice art quality and keep the sixth update going each week, or we can cut the update day in favor of focusing on art quality. It's been a difficult decision, but the RHB team has decided that quality is more important than quantity. Although we felt Nurse Shampoo was a good project, we knew that we could have made the art even better if we had the extra money and time to make it so. That will always nag at us. We promised that our art quality would improve, not degenerate. And if we keep on our present course, we'd have to break that promise.

So effective Monday, July 4th, the new schedule will be in effect. I know that the loss of the Saturday update slot is going to be very upsetting for some of you, but I swear that the RHB is not taking this setback lying down. We are going to continue to find new places to advertise our content, hoping to get enough members to restore the Saturday update. And, when resources permit, we will release bonus Saturday updates. It just won't be every week anymore.

I humbly apologize to all of you that the RHB was forced to take this step. It has been a long battle, nearly 9 months, fighting to save the Saturday update slot, but in the end we couldn't make the numbers work. We may be unable to release 6 pages of content anymore each week with our present resources, but we will work our butts off to make sure the five updates we can put out ROCK. Thanks for your understanding during this difficult time.

Nurse Shampoo Page 22 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In the final update of Nurse Shampoo, the Purple Wonder unleashes the most dastardly backup plan of all! Poor Ranma doesn't have a prayer!

IMPORTANT NOTES: First up, you'll notice that NS Page 20 and 21 have been re-posted. The reason is that "The End?" caption was mistakenly placed on page 21 instead of page 20. The main story of NS is meant to conclude on page 20 with pages 21 & 22 being silly, bonus material. I apologize for the confusion caused by the previous caption's erroneous placement.

Lastly, some of you are wondering what's next after Nurse Shampoo... well, the short answer is, for at least this week we will run a special or request on Thursday.

No decisions have been made regarding next week's schedule. First, we want to hear what Defenders have to say about NS and the mini-comic schedule in general. If it's working out, we'll make some tweaks and give it another shot. If not, then we'll try to come up with something better over the weekend. Your feedback is crucial, so please let us know what you think on the forums when you get a chance. Thanks! :D

Monday, Wednesday: Voodoo Child

Tuesday, Thursday: Nurse Shampoo (More information about this comic to come next week)

Friday: Fan Requests (Note that rather than have Fan Requests go on hiatus periodically due to sharing their content slot with Defender Specials, we have given requests its own release day. While this schedule is in effect, ONLY Fan Requests will be released on Friday. When production allows, fan requests may also update on Saturday as mentioned below.)

Saturday: Wild card slot. This day will feature specials, pinups projects or fan requests. The type of content will change periodically.

This new schedule is an experiment. We are going to try the schedule out this Spring and gauge whether fans are happy with the variety of content it provides. All feedback about this change is appreciated. Thanks!

In today's update, we have two zany Omake pages that explore questions raised during the course of LHD. Oh, and there's a special cameo in the mix as well for long time readers. ^_^

And with that, LHD is at last COMPLETE! Hope everybody enjoyed the bonus stuff.

Now onto the announcement for the next comic! Be sure to join us Wednesday as we launch Voodoo Child, Kasumi's first starring role in the Defenders Era. And if the cover is any indication, seems she's going to be tied up with us for the foreseeable future...

Wait, you're saying I already used that joke before? Fine, fine, I'll try again. Ahem... it looks like Kasumi is BOUND to... er... TIED to... sheesh, writing this joke is tougher than I expected. Need something with rope, rope... Ok, how about this? Have your heard the one about the jump rope? Skip it! Yeesh, the puns are getting worse! Perhaps it's best we move on? =P

Seriously though, I hope you all had a blast with LHD and will check out Voodoo Child on launch night. :D

Herb Breaks Through is now available for your viewing enjoyment.

In today's comic archive update, an overlooked villain returns!

Herb, heir to the Musk Dynasty, was not included in the Ranma anime or the Ranma OVA. This injustice can no longer stand. The Prince decides to take matters into his own hands and break into the color world. The only problem? It seems Herb is still black and white like in the manga. AWKWARD! O_O

This is one of my favorite gems from the Deep Star Books era. Even years after its initial release, no comic is quite like it. I hope you all enjoy this unique masterpiece!

Oh, and if you get a chance, stop by the bonus art section and check out the special goodies we've added for HBT, IDOA, and KS recently. :D

Welcome back, Defenders!

Little Horny Demons Page 50 is now available for your viewing enjoyment.

In the penultimate update of Little Horny Demons, the Oni reveals its hidden agenda, leaving our cast of characters to reflect on the meaning of past events.

I see that today is April Fool's day. Although we did not create this page with that date in mind, it's kind of interesting that the comic should end on a day known for practical jokes. It's completely a coincidence, I assure you.

Reading the forum posts, I have noticed a few readers chirp to see Ranma model her own set of Oni horns. While such a thing won't come to pass in this particular story, the door has been left wide open for the Oni to return in a future comic, mini-comic, or pinup. So we ask you, do you want to see Ranma-chan get her demon on in the future?

In today's update, Nabiki bounces back in a big way. It never ceases to amaze me how an anime character can be in excruciating pain one moment, only to suddenly make a full recovery the next.

What's the reason behind this strange phenomenon? Well, in the words of Roger Rabbit, it seems to happen "Only when it was funny!"

Welcome back, Defenders!

Fan Requests Page 97 & 98 are now available for your viewing enjoyment.

In today's request, Ranma travels to China, most likely in search of another Spring of Drowned Boy. Sadly, this expedition does not bear fruit. Ranma is forced to call it quits and resigns to the fact that his girl-form will be around for the foreseeable future (thank heavens ^_-).

But before our busty redhead can return to Japan, Shampoo ambushes her! Apparently the Purple Wonder has some crazy plan to keep Ranma in China. Shampoo's going to tie Ranma up, suspend her from a tree, then savagely pleasure her until she sees the error of her ways!

Now, this has absolutely no chance in hell of working, but who doesn't want to see how it all plays out?
:D

For those of you not entirely thrilled with our photo-shopped forest background (Sorry, we don't have any Chinese bamboo forests in our collection of 3D backgrounds), we've also included a version where the action takes place in a dojo. There's no story behind that location, except for the one you make yourself.

Notice how Herb-kun has Herb-chan facing the opposite direction during sex? Guess the heir to the Musk Dynasty still hasn't gotten over his irrational fear of breasts! ^_-

In today's update, Ranma unleashes his recently developed attack- the Kakushitsu tora bakuhatsu!

Don't fret if you have no idea what the heck the Japanese means. We're calling it by its English name in the comic (though it sounds infinitely cooler in Japanese!).

Hopefully avid Ranma fans will get the reasoning behind the choice of name for this special technique, but if you are stuck, try examining the English names of other Ryoga and Ranma martial arts moves... some similarities should start to appear.

All of these martial arts moves end up sounding sort of silly in English, don't they? You could say we are continuing that fine tradition with the Kakushitsu tora bakuhatsu. ^_-

Yesterday's montage of sexy RHB moments has me waxing nostalgic. In that spirit, today's pinup features some I Dream of Akane style magic. All in all, this one is probably the darkest story we ever put out. It's also the only comic so far that uses a first person narrative throughout the story. But most importantly, it represented a huge breakthrough in quality for God of Chaos where his art went from pretty good to "OMYGODAWESOME?". Enjoy!

Welcome back, Defenders! Specials Page 58 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

I'm pleased to announce the long overdue debut of Kiima on Defenders!

Although never featured in the anime, this white haired vixen gave Ranma plenty of trouble in the manga thanks to her ability to use a variety of Jusenkyo curse forms in espionage.

What is Kiima's most notable disguise? A curse form that looks exactly like Akane! Needless to say, that's a trick that can come in very handy, especially in hentai.

Which brings us to today's pinup- an interesting "alter-ego" pairing of Kiima's normal and curse forms.

Or alternatively, if you think Kiima is being particularly naughty, she may have captured Akane and dressed her up for some real mind-bending action. Just imagine the look on Akane's face after Kiima transforms! ^_^

In other news, we're also announcing our next comic project, Voodoo Child, which will mark the return of Kasumi Tendo. And if the cover below is any indication, it looks like she's going to be, ahem, tied up with us for the next couple months. =P

Lastly, we realize that we haven't been releasing many archived comics from Deep Star Books in the past year. With all of our ongoing projects, it can be challenging to find the extra time to post them. Since we've finished releasing our latest batch of fan requests, we're going to put Saturday pinups on hold temporarily for the next three weeks so we can post some of our classic comics. Each post will include the entire comic (with bonus art included in the appropriate section). Pinups will return to Saturdays on April 9th.

Oh, and in case you were wondering, the three comics to be archived are: Kasumi's Secret, I Dream of Akane, and Herb Breaks Through. Defenders who haven't read these yet are encouraged to stop by each weekend to check them out. :D

In today's request, Ranma finds himself in the throes of the "Nekoken" (cat fist).

For those of you who might not remember, Ranma is deathly afraid of cats. When he was a boy, Genma tried to teach Ranma the Nekoken by covering his son in fish sausage and throwing the boy into a pit full of felines!

The trauma of the training created a kind of psychosis where Ranma would freak out at the sight of any cat. If the fear gets strong enough, Ranma will even begin to think and act like a kitty!

So what's a concerned fiancée to do? Why, take advantage of Ranma's cuteness of course! ^_-

There's a small handful (I think it's three requests) that haven't yet been switched to 'request complete', even though requests after it are done. Today's fan request, and many of the ones coming up in the next few weeks, are going to come in two flavors. One clean art and another with some dialogue supplied by yours truly trying to illuminate the back story of the request, or to expand on a back story only roughly implied.

Welcome back, Defenders! Specials Page 43 is now available for your viewing enjoyment!

In today's update, we have a treat for you- our first pinup featuring speed eater Picolet Chardin III!

As the story goes, Soun Tendo paid for a meal at Picolet's father's restaurant by promising one of his unborn daughters as Picolet's bride.

Oh dear... I feel a rant coming on... I apologize in advance... He promised one of his unborn daughter's hand in marriage to pay for his dinner! He didn't trade it for a house, a car, or even a year of cable television- but rather for some food. Seriously, WTF? O_O

My question is why did it never occur to Soun that maybe he could just work at the restaurant until his debt was paid? What's the matter, Tendo, you have something against doing dishes?

Getting back on track, Picolet comes to collect on the debt owed and wackiness ensues. Ranma-chan volunteers to marry Picolet (you read that correctly) in the hopes of learning his family's secret speed eating techniques to avenge an earlier loss, which doesn't sit too well with Akane, Ranma's own future bride.

Which brings us to the purpose of today's pinup! Akane disguises herself as a maid in order to gain access to Chardin Mansion. Her plan? "Persuade" Picolet not to marry Ranma by any means necessary!

It's a steamy parody of a classic Ranma story and we hope you all enjoy it. :D

On a side note, I noticed some fans on the forum have expressed confusion about the content of Defender Specials. While it's true that we generally put "Defender armor theme" pinups of Ranma-chan in this gallery, we also use it for other themes (such as Christmas pinups) and for pinups that do not fit into some other specific gallery.

We'll be running Defender Specials until the next batch of fan requests is ready to go. Hope that clears everything up.

Fan Requests is going on a hiatus, but only on Saturdays (we'll continue to run requests on Tuesday and Thursday). In the meantime, we've got a brand new mini-comic starting that will update each Saturday!

Boy was this a secret project! How secret? Well for starters, I can't even tell you the name of it yet for fear of giving away the identity of the stars. O_O (The title will be revealed in due time after it's no longer spoilerish)

MGG marks the RHB authorial debut of LurkerFromBelow (though I helped out a bit here and there ^_-). And if you'd be so kind, consider leaving him feedback about MGG over at the forums if you have some free time. Lurker's curious as a cat to hear what you think about his first project. :D

In today's update, Ryoga is pumped up for his first day on the job, but faces unexpected peril from a customer!

And in other news, we're pleased to announce the launch of the Ranma Hentai Wiki! This new community feature is your one-stop resource for all things Ranma Hentai...or at least, we hope it will be one day. Like all wikis, they are a perpetual work in progress. =P

The Ranma Hentai Wiki's mission is to collect and preserve information about Ranma Hentai media and its authors. It was created by Deep Star and Hinoron, but will be maintained by Hinoron.

If you get some free time, head on over and read the entries for the RHB comics. You'll learn some history about each RHB book and hopefully have a few laughs along the way (note that many of the links in the trivia section are a hoot).

One last thing, wikis gobble up tons of free time. Hinoron has dumped dozens upon dozens of hours into its creation. Like me, he is an unpaid volunteer. So to help give him some meager compensation, we have inserted a single banner ad into the wiki. If you like what we're doing, please support the wiki by clicking once on the banner. The ad generates revenue by clicks, and while it won't be much, at the very least it should buy Hinoron a coke and pizza. And isn't that the least we can do for him? :D

In today's Commission, Ranma and Herb have a showdown in the Tendo dojo that turns decidedly sexy. What's that floating, glowing, pink ball of energy you ask? Why, a ball radiating waves of pure lust of course! (Only in manga, right guys? ^_-)

The theme for today's pinup is based upon a lemon archive story called Zeus's Ball: Turnabout is Fair Play. For those of you interested in reading the story behind the art, check it out here in the Ranma Lemon Archive.

Kidding aside, I must give special thanks to "Un_known" for an interesting request. Yohko is boy-crazy, especially for handsome guys like Ranma, so I think it's a great crossover concept. Hope everybody else enjoys it too!

The plot of PTH tackles the question of how Hinako could have a normal sex life given her unique condition. The writing and art is a little rough in spots (keep in mind, we were just starting out), but overall we think you'll still find PTH has plenty of charm. Enjoy!

Welcome back, Defenders! Happiness Consultant Page 59 is now available for your viewing pleasure!

In the final Happiness Consultant update, Nabiki looks to the future of her business.

And speaking of the future, let's talk about our next comic, Lost and Found!

Here is some information about LaF's production:

Line art: God of Chaos

Writer: Deep Star

Editing and backgrounds: Shade

Color: Team Sulca

Lost and Found starts next week and will run Monday, Wednesday, and Friday (in the regular comic page slots).

We're extremely excited about this project because it's our first narrative comic starring Ukyo in over three years!

If the short pinup book, Brown, was an appetizer, than LaF is the main course! It's going to be at least 40 pages long!

And if you are unsure if an Ukyo comic is your cup of tea, then feast your eyes on the LaF cover! Admit it, doesn't this make you want to order some Okonomiyaki? (and oddly, I also have a sudden craving for bacon O_o).

Welcome back, Defenders! Red Page 25, Happiness Consultant Page 50 and 51 are now available for your viewing pleasure!

Yesterday's Red Page 24 pic had some soft steam effects that gave the impression that Ranma was taking a hot bath. Of course, such a thing is impossible since hot water would cause Ranma to transform into her guy form. So we took out those effects to give the correct impression that the water is cold and called it "Red Page 25". We left the original Red 24 in the gallery for anybody who still wants it for their personal collection.

Sorry about the gaffe. Further discussion about this topic can be found in the "Red" thread on the forum.

Now let's move on to today's HC pics!

Site News 07.05.2010

Normally when the main story ends, so too does the comic. Yet when we read the forums, we often find fans wishing for extra pinups, epilogues, sequel ideas, and some of the more industrious even contribute an omake (think of them like cool bonuses)!

Well we enjoyed these extras so much, we thought "Heck, why don't we make some cool omakes of our own and see if the fans want to see more in future comics?"

In that spirit, we have prepared a slew of special features like: bonus pinups with narrative, post-story sex scenes, and even an epilogue! You could say that we have so much extra material that we're releasing another mini-comic! :D

And want to know the BEST part? We are releasing at least TWO pics a day until Happiness Consultant finishes its run!

Now before you get started, please note a few things:

1. The bonus art is drawn and colored by a different team. This was unavoidable due to a combination of scheduling issues and the increased release pace. The art quality is still very good, but the shift in style was unavoidable since certain personnel were busy working on RHB commissions and requests. If this experiment proves successful, we'll try and keep the art style consistent in future projects.
2. Some of the omake material breaks the 4th wall. You may see characters aware for example that they are in a comic or make external references to past RHB comics. Most of the time they remain in character, but they may bend the rules for the sake of comedy.
3. Ultimately the pages are extras that stand apart from the main story. Epilogues offer insight into character motives and suggest possible future outcomes, but don't take it too seriously. Omake can be surreal, informative, absurd, but the main purpose is always fun. So please do keep that in mind at all times. ^_-

Welcome back, Defenders! Fan Requests Page 31 is now available for your viewing pleasure!

The first thing I noticed when I saw this commission was the fabulous transparency effects. In fact, it took the artist an entire week to draw this one page, which is like an eternity of production for a single pinup let me tell you. Some things, of course, are well worth the wait. :D

The second thing I noticed was: Wait, Ryoga knows how to drive? And even if he could, would you really want him to be behind the wheel? There's a reason they call him a "Lost Boy". =P

You can almost picture a mini-script to accompany today's image:

Ranma: Mmmm....Are we there yet? The deal was I'd only blow you for the duration of our trip!

Ryoga: Er...soon! SOON! It won't be long now. In the meantime, please continue!

Ryoga <thinking, goofy grin>: Ahhh...For once, my poor sense of direction is a GOOD THING!

Definitely one of our favorites of all the commissions done so far, we hope you all enjoy it too!

In other news, we're switching from Fan Requests back to Red next week. Red will occupy the pinup release slots until its completion sometime in late July.

Tentatively, this is planned to be the last of the color themed sets. From time to time we may still do specials like Babes of Glory, but starting in August we are going to focus heavily on releasing as many Fan Requests as possible.

We know there are a lot of requests piling up. And it's no secret that we underestimated the popularity of the request corner feature (Sorry about that! O_o). But we're not just accepting the status quo. We've added another full-time artist and, with hard work and dedication, we will turn the current mountain of requests into an anthill. Thanks for your patience. We promise those requests will be well worth the wait. :D

Now on to today's news. You guys won't want to skip this blurb. We have a lot of cool stuff to cover!

First, I understand that there are many who feel that Happiness Consultant Page 14 was a little TOO cheesy. And we freely admit that we tend to pile on ridiculous amounts of cheddar. In this case, we might have overdosed on the cheese. With that in mind, we've decided to release an alternate version of 14.

If you like this version more, feel free to replace the old one in your personal files. Or keep the old one if like your sex scenes campy. :D

Although the "new version" of page 14 will be in the main comic, we'll include the old version in our bonus art section when Happiness Consultant has completed its run.

Most importantly, please let us know if you like the new page 14 on the forums. Thanks!

In other news, I've decided to personally donate an all color version of The Hentai Zone Volume 2 to the Defenders website. I've been storing some extra cash each month diligently for the last year or so, and finally I have enough stashed away to make this upgrade happen. At long last, the Hentai Zone will be ALL COLOR.

I am uncertain when the upgraded version will begin release, but we're hoping to start it up in late June or early July. Check back with us again in a few weeks for more details.

Ok so let's finally move on to today's page.

In today's update, Nabiki feels the financial fallout of Black Monday. What's Black Monday you ask? It's a reference to the great stock market crash of October 19th, 1987 (not so coincidentally the same year Ranma was first released). No need to mention how relevant that is these days. O_O

But whether it's the 80's or modern times, you can't keep a good crook down! Follow Nabiki as she crafts a business plan to take back her fortune and prove once and for all that greed is not only good, it can also feel pretty damn good too!

Site News 04.18.2010

Welcome back, Defenders!

This special Sunday update features our long awaited conversion to a PHP site! And there are a score of improvements to behold.

Banished are the awkward frames in the archives section. Comics are now displayed in a similar gallery to that of the RHB public gallery.

Bonus art is now displayed in its own special area of our website that is accessible from the navigation menu. This will prevent the links from being buried beneath massive galleries as they were in the past.

We've created an About Us page where you can learn a little bit about the RHB team.

The Warp to a Comic jump menu no longer features a "go button". Instead select the comic you want from the drop down box and you will be automatically transferred to the correct gallery page.

When you click on the "comics" link in the menu, a sub-menu appears showing the current comics in production. Archived comics will not appear, but can still be quickly accessed from the Warp to a Comic jump menu.

Some of you are wondering why the php upgrade to Defenders took this long. The fan who helped us upgrade the RHB public area, RatBastard (don't let the name fool you, he's a really nice guy), was unable to proceed with the site improvements for Defenders due to personal obligations.

There were no hard feelings and we thanked RatBastard for his contributions to the RHB community and hope he'll come back when time permits.

Now we had to make the difficult choice of whether to wait for him to return and help us code the website, or continue the project ourselves. Ultimately, I decided to press on with the upgrades. I had no free time to pursue this, so I mused that I had to sacrifice a few hours of sleep each day until the php conversion was finished. =P

Suffice it to say, before this started I had zero PHP experience. And because Defenders has some unique design elements that were not present in the RHB Public galleries, copy and pasting files was not an option. But through research and (mostly) careful trial and error, I managed to create a new Defenders version that incorporated all the features our fans had come to expect.

The "automated release" system is the only aspect of the upgrade I was unable to implement. However, the conversion to php galleries will still save a great deal of time each update so the effort is well worth it. If Rat is able to return someday, hopefully that's an improvement we can look into at that time.

If you have a few minutes, please let me know what you think of the new website. Your comments are much appreciated. Enjoy!

Ryoga's boxing match with Ranma yesterday was a one-sided affair. Our favorite lost boy found himself on his back and pummeled by Ranma's relentless offense. (Editor's note: Hitting a man while he's down? Those are hardly Marquess of Queensberry rules! Ah well, why fight fair when you can cheat, eh Saotome?)

SITE NEWS 4-12-10:

SPECIAL NOTE: Hey guys! Artists have been on vacation since Easter and this has affected production. The final pages of For Love of a Girl-Side are not ready yet and have been delayed. :(

Tentatively, we expect the FLOAGS finale art to be finished in about two weeks. So while FLOAGS is on hiatus, we are substituting another Ranma project- Red!

Red will update Monday through Friday for at least the next two weeks. Anything Goes 2 will be unaffected and run on Saturday as usual.

Technically, Red is not complete yet either. However, we are going to release the first ten pages of the project and call it "Red Volume 1". The second volume of Red will be released in late Spring/early Summer (which will give us enough time to draw and color the remaining planned pages).

Sorry for the delays. We're doing our best to catch up. Hopefully substituting a Ranma project with a Ranma project will not be entirely unwanted. ^_-

We have another pregnant Ranma pinup for you guys today. :D

This one was requested by "TJen". We hope you like it!

A side note about the pregnancy fetish: as you all know, we are very new to drawing these types of pinups. And it's hard for us to know exactly how you guys like your preggers pics unless we get some specific information. If you want a tummy and larger breasts, but the girls should look normal otherwise, then we need to know that in the descriptions. Otherwise, we tend to go for a natural look..which means extra weight all over and that's maybe NOT what you guys want. So when requesting this fetish, help us out by making it clear what you would like to see. And when you are in doubt about written instructions, a visual reference works wonders. Thanks for your understanding and help guys.

It's time to say goodbye to another Olympics Games. Our buxom athletes gave their best and made it to the podium. I dare say they did us all proud!

You'll also notice that we've included a variant for page 14. While we suggested that Hinako was the identity of the third skater, we weren't entirely happy with it, so we reworked her to look more like Ranma-chan. It's not perfect, but it's probably better than considering the third skater some random character. Anyway, consider it an extra. Enjoy!

Event 11: ICE DANCING

It just wouldn't be the Winter Olympics without the Golden Pair!

As we all know, Azusa can't resist things that are cute. But what would happen if she wanted to collect something during one of her skating routines? Imagine the havoc that would cause, especially if what she wanted was VERY attached to Mikado!

Azusa: Oh! This is the cutest thing ever in the history of cute things! <grab>

Mikado: Owch! Hey Azusa, what do you think you're doing?

Azusa: Silence, Mikado! I'm having a conversation with my new pet. I shall call you "Robinet". ♥

Mikado: For heaven's sake, Azusa! This is the Olympics!

Azusa: Don't mind him, Robinet. We'll have a tea party later... once we're alone together.

Mikado: I hate to spoil your party, but your new plaything just happens to be attached to my body!

Azusa: Then we'll just have to do something about that. Hmm...

Mikado: <gulp> What's that supposed to mean? Cut it out already!

Azusa: There's an idea! Hold still, Mikado!

Mikado: Hey! Don't joke around like that! You are kidding, right?RIGHT?! O_O

Azusa: I can't help it! I want it! Robinet is just SOOO cute!

Fin ~

As it happens, I wrote this segment above for the original Babes of Glory comic. It may surprise you to learn we had intended to do a whole figure skating narrative comic. And although we liked it well enough, we felt that it was better to celebrate a variety of events with many more Ranma babes. So we put aside the idea (for now anyway). The rather dark humor above was one of the planned jokes. And although it's pretty "rough", I thought you guys might get a chuckle out of it so I included it above. If you juxtapose it with today's page I think some of it still resonates. Poor Mikado. Hehe.

And, at the risk of making this long blurb "epic" in length, special congratulations to the Canadian team of Tessa Virtue and Scott Moir, who late last night captured the first ever gold medal in Ice Dancing for a North American athlete. We salute you!

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 08 is now available!

The Black Rose of the St. Hebereke School for Girls (also Furinkan if you read one of our previous, pre-Defender era comics) needs a sport with thrills, chills, and excitement. An event so dangerous and exposed that it literally has her on the edge of her seat! Kodachi's Winter Olympics game is...

Event 8: SKELETON

Check out the look in her eye! Kodachi has a need for speed, but I'm not sure if traveling upwards of 140 km/h on a tiny sled (Did I mention it has no steering or braking mechanism?) is the best way to indulge it. One thing is for sure, she's perhaps the only member of the Ranmaverse crazy enough to pick this as her favorite sport!

SITE NEWS 2-18-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 07 is now available!

Which sport does Nabiki compete in today? Unlike Akane's love of the pure adrenaline of speed skating, or Kasumi's preference for the majesty of traditional skiing, Nabiki is a modern girl and needs a trendy, cutting edge sport. Nabiki's Winter Olympics game is...

Event 7: SNOWBOARDING

SITE NEWS 2-17-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 06 is now available!

Event 6: SKIING

In today's update, Kasumi grabs her skis and hits the slopes! Unfortunately, sometimes the winter hills hit back! O_O

Never fear though, I'm sure Kasumi will get the hang of it eventually. If there's one thing the Tendo women have in abundance, it's determination!

SITE NEWS 2-16-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 05 is now available!

Event 5: SPEED SKATING

In today's update, Akane takes to the ice and tackles speed skating. Do you doubt she's fast? You ever hear the "Baka Song"? I wouldn't bet against her in this event. If her feet are even half as fast as her motor mouth, the other athletes are in serious trouble!

SITE NEWS 2-15-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 04 is now available!

Event 4: ICE HOCKEY

In today's update, Ukyo ditches okonomiyaki for the day and serves up a hockey puck instead!

Could Ukyo's ninjutsu like cooking arts revolutionize the sport? Doubtful, but I wouldn't want to be on the receiving end of that spatula!

SITE NEWS 2-14-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 03 is now available!

Event 3: SINGLES FIGURE SKATING

In today's update, Azusa performs a beautiful spiral- in the buff of course!

Inspiration for today's pose is rooted in the change-of-edge arabesque spiral that was Michelle Kwan's signature move in figure skating. And I must say, it never looked more...cute. ^_-

SITE NEWS 2-13-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory page 02 is now available!

Event 2: SKI JUMPING

In today's update, Shampoo jump starts the games with her long, powerful Chinese Amazon legs.

Do you think something might be missing in today's pinup? Here's a fun bit of trivia! Ski jumping is one of only two types of skiing that do not use ski poles! (For the record, the other is skiboarding) I suppose with Shampoo's martial arts training, perfect balance, and, ahem, cat like grace (sorry couldn't resist), she'd be a natural at this. :D

SITE NEWS 2-12-10:

Welcome back, Defenders! Babes of Glory pages 00 and 01 are now available!

In today's update, the Ranma babes celebrate their love of the Winter Olympics by joining in the fun. We hope you enjoy seeing the girls go for the gold!

Event 1: CURLING

The inspiration for today's page actually came from a real calendar where Canada's curling team posed nude to promote their sport. We were so moved by that forward thinking gesture that we made our own salute to the girls of Curling. May other free thinking female athletes follow in their footsteps!

Reminder: FLOAGS is going on hiatus until March 1st. Babes of Glory will be running everyday from Feb 12th to Feb 28th. Sorry for the cliffhanger here guys, but I promise you the sheer scope of the finale will not disappoint. As you can see from all these guys below, it's going to be truly epic. :D

Welcome back, Defenders! For Love of a Girl-Side page 56 is now available!

In today's update, will Arcee repel the horde or embrace them? Perhaps, as fate would have it, Ranma might not have to choose...

In other news, the website has been substantially redesigned. Now all current and archived comics appear in the new Comics Gallery section. And best of all, there's a feature called "Warp to a Comic" that lets you jump to any comic on Defenders instantly!

General adjustments include a decreased font size, elimination of the menu on updates in the lazy link (they now will pop up in a new window, free of the menu), and the new home link banner in the top left corner of our website. Don't forget you can always navigate back to the home page by clicking on the top left banner! ^_^

Future updates are planned that will change the layout of the image galleries as well, although these revisions might not be implemented for a couple months because I have to turn my attention to upcoming projects. I'll keep coding on the weekends, and eventually another site update will be announced. Thanks for your patience.

SITE NEWS 2-06-10:

Welcome Back, Defenders! The Hentai Zone Volume 3 page 22 is now available!

In today's update, Ranma and P-Chan hope to spare themselves from Akane's wrath!

And alas, friends, it's time to say goodbye to yet another project. Hentai Zone Volume 3 took a long time to realize, far longer than we ever intended, but we hope the wait was worth it. :D

Whether we do a volume 4 depends entirely on you guys! Let us know if you want to see more Hentai Zone. We've included a special preview of what might happen in the next volume below!

And assuming the answer is a resounding, "yes", what would you like us to explore next time? Want to see Akane lose her locks? Or perhaps Shampoo should enter the mix? Let us know whether you want us to skip ahead some or slow the story down. We're listening!

Lastly, the Website is about to undergo another major redesign. I've given fans a taste of things to come with the new banner on the home page, but it's just the start! Look for the new website design this Monday! ^_^

SITE NEWS 1-26-10:

Welcome Back, Defenders! Yellow page 21 is now available! PLEASE READ TODAY'S UPDATE BLURB BEFORE DOWNLOADING!

Yellow page 21 features a dream image of the two Hinakos together in a sexual situation. As you all know, we do not display things like hard loli on this website. However, in this case we did draw one Hinako to be around Akane's age from canon. Further, we made sure that you do not see the more youthful Hinako from the chest down. This allows the viewer to use their imagination to fill in the blanks. I know there are people that like loli, and it is not illegal in the United States and many other countries, but it is in some others like Australia. And it is for this reason that we explicitly forbade a graphic depiction of the younger Hinako. I urge anyone who has issues with a depiction of a more youthful Hinako to please avoid this page entirely. For the rest of the fans who like this content, I hope you will understand why we had to respect certain guidelines and I apologize if you do not feel we went far enough, but it was the very edge of where we felt comfortable taking our art. If you've been reading the forums, I debated whether to publicly release this image, but due to its popularity in our circle and some pent up demand to see it, I've decided to release it. On a side note, there are also two alternative backgrounds. We don't do these very often, so we thought we'd give the viewers a few more locations to choose from.

Thanks for your understanding. Again, if you don't want to view this content, please avoid this update.

Happy New Year, Defenders! For Love of a Girl-Side page 40 and Hentai Zone 3 Page 17 are now available!

Since it's a holiday weekend, we will be spending time visiting family and so we are posting the next page of Hentai Zone early. Updates will resume normally on Monday. :) All future updates to our website will now feature watermarks. The reason for this is because some Defender projects were being posted to other websites without permission. The watermarks are as unintrusive as we can make them and we hope they do not distract from your enjoyment of our art. We had unbranded art for almost four years. We did not wish to take this step, but admins from other websites rightly pointed out that it would be much easier for them to spot our art and remove it from their websites if they could easily identify it. They are willing to help us, so we must also help them in turn spot our artwork. We are a very small website and need all the web traffic we can muster to ensure that we have the financial support to continue making the Ranma hentai we all love. Thank you for your understanding.

Lastly, we do not have a New Year themed special, but we do have some cool additions to our galleries! Better Angels and Tendo Sisters now have PNG deluxe versions available in their respective galleries. Enjoy! :D

Since Hinako is a lower tiered character in the Ranmaverse, this project won't run as long as Tendo Sisters or Purple, but we will try to have it be a little longer than Brown (which people seemed to feel was too short).

Also, please note that Tendo Sisters has been moved to the archives section.

It's been smooth sailing so far for Ranma at Furinkan, but today is where his luck finally curves. Speaking of curves, you'll notice that God of Chaos, the line artist of FLOAGS, uses medium breasts in his design of Ranma-chan. It's sort of refreshing really because I think for awhile we were really ballooning up the bust sizes. GoC seems to have brought us back to a more realistic shape. Ranma has a great rack, but should she be able to compete with the likes of Hinako? O_o

Perhaps Nabiki blackmailed her into posing for a series of naughty photos? And where exactly did the bike come from? The Tendos (with the exception of Nabiki) are usually dirt poor! Today's Nabiki update is featured on the cover. This sultry pinup had a lot of potential and possibilities, so we decided to have three different versions! You have a choice of having Nabiki onstage, at your very own private table, or in her bedroom. I guess which place you end up depends on how much you pay her. =P Careful viewing of each pic reveals that there is another difference besides the background. The light levels vary considerably. The table pic has a lot of shadow, the stage pic has light to moderate shadow, and the bedroom pic is bright with normal lighting. Judicial use of shadow can evoke moods and add intrigue, but if you use too much, then detail is lost and it sours the experience. Hopefully we pushed the limits with today's table pic, without going overboard. ^_^

Ranma has been forced on the sidelines during swim class in the past on account of his curse, but as a girl she is free to play in the water to her heart's content. And Ranma seems to be making the most of it! And on an aside, when writing any material featuring Ranma, I find the choice of pronouns (such as "she", "he", "him" etc.) very interesting. Only with Ranma (and I suppose a hermaphrodite) can you find sentences where both male and female pronouns are featured within and it makes PERFECT SENSE! Today's blurb seems to fall into that category. Although when you get right down to it, if you always treat Ranma as a guy, even in male form, then you could always use male pronouns by default (Ranma would probably prefer it this way himself!). So which do you choose? I know some of our fans are talented fanfic writers so it's possible that they have gone through similar experiences. Anyway, sorry for the tangent thoughts! End of aside. ^_^

Akane has a lot to learn when it comes to sex. But will Ranma be able to endure another night as wild as the first? And how will Akane pass her classes without his help? And here's a reminder notice for Justice Hentai I will leave up until Monday: Our new sister site, JUSTICEHENTAI.COM, has launched! Up until this point Justice Hentai has been an annual special, but after years of hard work and strong fan support, we've decided that Justice Hentai deserves its own website. Although Justicehentai.com is our sister site, it's financially independent from Ranmabooks. The site does share a lot of the same personnel you are used to seeing at Ranmabooks.com though. So you can expect the same great quality art you've become accustomed to here at Defenders. And there are some cool things we are trying out there you might even see someday on Defenders like turn based art requests from fans (at no extra cost for the fans of course)! The success of such programs will determine whether we should implement a similar system here at Defenders. So, joining that website might actually give you an idea of where Defenders could be headed in the near future. ^_^ Our focus remains devoted to Defenders, but if you're curious to see what we are up to when we aren't working on Ranma and you like superheroes in the buff, then consider joining us over at JUSTICEHENTAI.COM this weekend. Sappy love songs tell us that love hurts, but is it also supposed to give you brain damage? O_o I'm pleased to inform you guys that after much hard work, we have just released All-Star Hentai Volume 3: The Final Chapter! The All-Star Hentai series has always featured some of Team Sulca's best art, and this volume is no exception. Expect high quality art, and of course, Shade and I cracking plenty of jokes from start to finish. ^_^ You can find ASH 3 over at Deep Star Books: ALL-STAR HENTAI VOLUME 3: THE FINAL CHAPTER And if you are new to the All-Star Hentai series, you can pick up all three volumes in one bundle for a sweet price: ALL-STAR HENTAI: THE COMPLETE TRILOGY Unlike some previous third party releases, all proceeds from the sale of All-Star Hentai are going towards making more Ranma art for Defenders. So buying it will absolutely be a great benefit to our future Ranma work. Since Defenders has been a success, our artists are focusing more and more on Ranma art. So besides Pokemon which is coming, uh, sometime in late October, early November, we don't plan to release any more third party comics on Deep Star Books. While this may be sad to our fans that enjoyed seeing something different now and again, we are really happy that we can focus all our time on the Ranma projects we all love to see. ^_^

SITE NEWS 9-09-09:

Greetings Defenders! Tendo Sisters Page 01 is now available!

Tendo Sisters is on the loose! And Akane is up first with a smashing debut (pardon the horrible pun). Today's page is a trip down memory lane for me. One of the first images we worked on was a long haired Akane Tendo practicing in her gi. I mean this is going WAY back when the team was evaluating whether producing comics was even feasible. The feel of the original Akane pic was very much like the early anime design of her. Three years later, I had Palcomix update the concept to feature a mature Akane, similar to the OVA design. For me, seeing today's Tendo Sisters page is a reminder of how much we've changed and how far we've come. SO, for a special treat, I am going to display the original version of this pic below too. It's not officially a part of Tendo Sisters, but it did inspire today's page, so I am including it for anybody interested. I must give credit where credit is due for this pic: Lineart was created by DUNNO (whose art you can see in the Kuno Invasion bonus art), coloring by SHADE (he's light years better today), whereas I did the concept work (similar to what I do for the Defenders pinups these days). FYI, here's a reminder of each Tendo's update day. You can find this information in the current comics section, but I will include it here again for convenience:

Monday: Kasumi Wednesday: Akane Friday: Nabiki (It's like she knows you got your paycheck, so she's suddenly interested and appears ^_^)

We weren't quite sure where we wanted to place today's pic. It's a wrestling image of Ranma-chan and Ukyo. The dojo was the obvious choice, but we experimented with a bunch of different locations and changed the lighting to night time on one page. They were all interesting in their own way, so we decided to just upload them all and let the fans decide which they liked best. ^_^ Also be advised that page 07 is here again because we made a fix to Ukyo's foot having an unintended shadow underneath. It's a minor fix, but for those of you grabbing the pics day by day, you might want to update your records. Many thanks to Lurkerfrombelow for pointing it out to us on the forums.

Brown serves up another page, but this time from a different artist. The next few images are drawn by Team Sulca (the same art team that worked on Better Angels). We've had a run of hardcore Ukyo images, so today is a bit softer to mix it up. This is probably my favorite pic of Ukyo so far. First there's detailed clothes. We've had a bunch of nudes so it was nice to see her a little more dressed. And oddly, something about the way the legs and feet are positioned really does it for me! O_O I'm very curious to see what people think of today's pic. Can a page that doesn't even show a mammary still stack up well to the rest of the set? And in case you missed yesterday's update, here's a reminder of the new schedule we are using after Brown is completed:

Monday, Wednesday, Friday: The Tendo Sisters Tuesday, Thursday: For Love of a Girl Side Saturday: The Hentai Zone 3

There are now 3 pinups and 3 comic pages released every week!

The End. After 50 glorious pages, Better Angels is now complete. I still can't believe it's over. O_o On behalf of the Ranma Hentai Books team, we hope you've enjoyed reading this comic as much as we have making it. It was definitely a labor of love and I think that shows in the art and the humor throughout. Now it's time to look towards the future. Shade is getting some nifty special effects ready for our next comic, "For Love of a Girl Side". In the meantime, we are going to run Brown everyday until Monday, when it will also complete its run. Tuesday, we will begin releasing FLOAGS. And next week we'll also be launching "The Tendo Sisters" and "The Hentai Zone Volume 3". So to simplify things a bit, here's what the new schedule is going to look like:

Monday, Wednesday, Friday: The Tendo Sisters Tuesday, Thursday: For Love of a Girl Side Saturday: The Hentai Zone 3

There are now 3 pinups and 3 comic pages released every week! I'm sure you all have questions about what these new projects are all about. Answers, VISUAL answers, are on the way (And aren't those the best kind?! Shade will be updating the Defenders tour soon to give you all a preview of these great projects we have in development.

Today's update is especially spooky. O_o Has Ukyo been chatting with Gosunkugi about the dark arts? Talk about a black magic woman! We hope you enjoy this Halloween special. What's that you say? Halloween is in October? Well that's true, but in Japan the holiday similar to Halloween is called Obon. It's a Buddhist festival celebrated in the month of August where Japanese families visit and care for the graves of their ancestors. At night, there are also dances where girls traditionally dress up in yukata (Summer kimono), but in recent times the youth have started doing cosplay and masquerade too, much to the chagrin of the establishment. If you look closely at the picture, you'll see that Ukyo is in fact visiting a shrine. And her outfit, a skimpy witch number, is certainly quite the costume. There are lots of ghost stories told during the Obon period, and our update today is a little nod to Japanese culture. We'd like to offer a special thanks to RatBastard for sending us the 3D shrine that we used for this background. He's truly a Defender that goes beyond the call of duty. ^_^

It's early into this Ukyo pinup project, but I have to tell you guys that the majority of images planned in the comic are VERY HARDCORE compared to Purple. There are a couple softer ones, but I think you'll see something like 80 percent of the images in this comic are hardcore. There had previously been some complaints that Purple didn't have enough of these images, but perhaps we've swung the pendulum too far the other way? Time will tell. Well then, on to today's page. This is a cum shot, O-face type image with unusual body position in Ukyo's swim suit. Fans who have read Black Rose of Furinkan will remember how much fun those girls have after swim class. =D

SITE NEWS 8-17-09:

First up, Purple has been moved to the "archived comics" section. Speaking of the archived comics area, some of our Defenders whose native language is not English have asked that I include thumbnails to each comic for them to click on. The menu links are still there, but you can also click on the small covers of each comic to quickly take you to that gallery. I've also made the categories on the menu links larger and better separated to prevent accidental clicks. PNG versions of Perils, MoP, Dreamlover, and Purple will all be available in the archived comics section early next month. Thanks to all the Defenders who have exhibited patience while I continue to improve the website layout and add more features. Now about today's page, it's the return of Futanari! For the lesbian pairing of Devil Akane and Angel Ranma, we've revisited this fetish. If Futanari isn't your thing, please know that Angel Akane and Devil Ranma will be having a traditional guy/girl sex scene too, so we hope that we have something for every taste. If any of you find some rare and precious free time, please inform me what you thought of the improvements to the archived comics section and today's page over at the forum. I would appreciate it.

Ukyo is in sore need of some attention from our team, so the next pinup book will be all about her. It won't be as long as Purple was, but I think Defenders will agree it was time do something starring her. Page for page, she's one of the most neglected gals on the site. And that's really criminal when you think about how hot she is. =/ Sharp eyes will notice that the Palcomix artist behind this project is none other than the same man who drew Cheating Hearts. He's been steadily improving since that comic and we are very pleased to share this wonderful collection of pinups with our fans. Please let us know what you think of the project on the forums when you get a chance. Thanks guys!

SITE NEWS 8-11-09:

Greetings Defenders! I've returned from my trip to Las Vegas. And to answer your question, YES I gambled a little ($100 USD on slot machines). And no, I did not win (though that would have been nice). Although I did see a Klingon in full make-up and armored costume try to make it through security at the airport. PRICELESS MEMORY!

So on to the update. First up, I have a big announcement! Principal art for The Hentai Zone 3 has been completed. We still have backgrounds, clean up, and dialog to insert but the fact is we will be releasing this long delayed project in the near future. Although THZ 3 will be made available to the public RHB galleries once it is completed, we'll be releasing the individual pages of THZ on Defenders exclusively while we are still working on them. So Defenders will get the first look at this wonderful comic, while ultimately everybody will get to see it. In case you were wondering how THZ was paid for, donations accounted for about 75 percent of the project, while I donated the other 25 percent to finish it up. Now a worry some of you may have is whether THZ will be taking up a prime page slot for a day (like say Monday or Tuesday). The answer is NO, absolutely not. We'll be releasing THZ pages as a bonus page either on a weekday or on Saturday (SHADE and I are still discussing the best day to do it. Maybe some of you have an opinion and can share it on the forums?). Although this isn't a firm date and is subject to change, we'd like to begin releasing THZ pages starting the first week of September. So I hope Defenders will be eagerly anticipating that comic's debut. Now back to Purple. Today's update is Page 27. This is, without a doubt, my favorite image out of the whole set. Tanlines, beautiful curves, and a dynamite smile. We're incredibly proud of it and that's why we saved it for last. Yes, you read that correctly. LAST! We've just completed Purple! Woah! It's been a fun ride, but it felt like it was time to wrap things up. We hope you enjoyed our Summer of Shampoo. ^_^ Now some basic stuff you need to know. For one thing, Purple is now available for sale on Deep Star Books. The pages are in a lossless, superior PNG format. But you DO NOT have to buy this version of the book. All Defenders will be able to use a special download link to grab the comic. Shade and I have made it very clear that we NEVER double dip. And we want all our Defenders to know that whatever Ranma comics the DSB gets, Defenders will get first. And you may get stuff the DSB NEVER gets. Now some of you like to use Lazy Links, so I've included a special Lazy Link to the PNG Deluxe version of Purple below. We'll also be moving Purple to the archived comics section this weekend, so you'll be able to grab the PNG version there too after we archive the comic. Please enjoy! Ah and before I forget, you must want to know what's the next pinup project? Well let me tell you: it's BROWN! Yup, we have a set of Ukyo pinups coming your way. And after that completes, we'll be starting up a variety set called TENDO SISTERS, which will have Akane, Nabiki, and Kasumi pinups released on their own special day! (This is essentially BLUE, GREEN, and WHITE all in one set. Don't worry it won't be TOO massive. But since FLOAGS is coming out and that is heavily Ranma-chan, we wanted to have a series set that compliments the girls not in the main comic). I hope everybody can digest this mountain of information we just sent you way. As always, if you have questions, just ask us on the forums!

Today is the day! The final cast member of Better Angels has appeared! Now, I feel that I should explain the background of the appearance. MASSIVE SPOILERS BELOW If you don't want the surprise spoiled, view the page first and then come back and read this section.

Some of you may be wondering what the hell does Belldandy have to do with Ranma or Kasumi? It's a fair question. The connection comes from Kasumi's seiyū (voice actress), Kikuko Inoue. Arguably, her two most famous roles are Kasumi Tendo and Belldandy from Oh My Goddess! (Or Ah! My Goddess! for those that steadfastly believe that's the way it should be translated....long story, let's move on). It's true that Rumiko never drew Belldandy, but because she was famously voiced by the same actress who voiced Kasumi, and because they share some similar mannerisms (she even performs the two characters with a regal or ethereal style), we decided that we'd do this crossover cameo and see what everybody thought of it. Didn't Team Sulca do an AMAZING job on detailing Belldandy? If ever there was a day we want you to share your thoughts on the forums, today is the day! We're eagerly waiting to see what you all think of this appearance, our first Ranma/other anime crossover scene! Enjoy Defenders!

Today's update is a lovely up close and personal look at Shampoo's aggressive side. Isn't an Amazon with an attitude sexy? She can spank me any... Ahem. Notice the unusual POV for the image. We wanted the audience to think it was a view of Shampoo as seen from the floor (maybe Mousse got clobbered and was staring up at Shampoo's wrath). We realize that some might prefer a straight up vertical image, so we included that too as the alternate 23b. That image's POV looks more like a guy groveling at her knees! And finally, just so she didn't seem completely nude (let's face it, we've done it a lot at this point), we added in the hair accessories from the OVA. Cya tomorrow Defenders with another BA page.

Our first Shampoo themed pic is a rather patriotic spread. Don't you agree that Shampoo has to be the BEST import from China ever? (Okay, the best Chinese girl drawn by a Japanese artist import ever =P)

The pose was inspired by a Gainax Evangelion calendar we saw with a chick spread out on a Nerv flag. We liked it so much, we decided to see how Shampoo would look in a similar situation. There's also this trippy Krypton at night look (If you remember the set design from Superman: the Movie) to the background that Palcomix inserted. I don't exactly understand why they chose that particular design, but it's sort of strange to see a traditional amazon lying on a Chinese flag with a futuristic Kryptonian city design in the background. Could this be Kingdom Cum Shampoo? ^_- (Ok unless you read Superman comics that probably left you scratching your head. Gomen.) And speaking of Evangelion... Shade and I just released our new book, Beer! BEER! GLORIOUS BEER! over at Deep Star Books. It's a seedy Evangelion story about a forbidden romance between Shinji and Misato. It also features four jaw dropping Deluxe images from the artist Reiq. Proceeds go towards making Ranma art, so if you like Evangelion, and you want to read a really sexy, funny story, check it out by clicking HERE.

Greetings Defenders! As you can see, there are many changes taking place to the site this month. Please remember, we are still new and it's going to take a few months more to work out all the bugs and implement features and content. Thanks for your understanding and patience. Now, on to the news! The Welcome Page has been moved in favor of a Site News section on the main page. We wanted to leave up the Welcome Page for the first month because of all the new sign-ups we were getting, but now we are going to focus on using this space to inform the members we already have. If you are new to the site, you can still view the Welcome Page by clicking on the link up top. You'll notice a new area called "Defenders Specials" on the Nav Bar to your left. This is a section where we will put official site images and one-shot pinups that don't belong to a comic. Every month we plan to have something new and exciting to show the fans, so please check it out. You'll notice that each of the comics now has a link to the review thread on the Nav Bar. We know that a lot of people can't be bothered to go searching the forum for the buried review thread for each comic, so we are making it as easy as possible for you to find the topic thread. So if you are reading one of our comics, and you have feedback to give, please click on the link and share your thoughts with other Defenders. We'd all appreciate it greatly! Lastly, making things simpler is the theme of this month's update. So we are going to include a "Lazy Link" at the bottom of the site news page. Click on the thumbnail, and you will instantly be taken to today's update page! No more jumping through sections just to see one page. And don't forget! Our logo in the top left is also our home link. So be sure to use that to help navigate the website quickly.

Keep those suggestions coming guys. While we can't implement all of them, we are doing our best to evolve the website to meet the needs of our fans. Hopefully this month's update is a step in the right direction. ^_^
